Redmen end season

Acton High School's junior boys' volleyball team ended the season on a losing note as they were dropped 15-9, 15-5, 15-1 by Bishop Reding in the Acton gym on Tuesday.

Acton displayed individual flights of brilliance, but their old nemesis, lack of team play, came back to haunt them.

"We didn't call the ball and we failed to provide coverage for our blockers," said coach Ken Ellis. "As we get behind in this aspect of the game, for example, having the ball tipped over the block, the players seem to become unsettled and their personal skills deteriorate. We had trouble, for example, in getting a proper pass to our setters following a Reding serve."

Acton's Redmen can achieve some consolation, the coach felt, by realizing how much their play has improved over the season. Perhaps this will carry over into next year.

Acton High School junior Redmen volleyball team finished its season last Tuesday with 15-9 and 15-5 losses in a match against Bishop Reding Royals. Redmen player Scott McIntyre, gave his all for his school.

Sheratt sharp

After six matches in the North Halton public school volleyball league, Sam Sherratt of Milton has taken over first place in both the boys and girls standings following last week's play.

The Sam Sherratt girls team were taken to three tough matches against Stewarttown before winning and defeated Centennial to claim first place.

Sam Sherratt won the first game decisively 15-3, but Stewarttown rebounded to take the second game 15-12, before dropping the final game 15-7. In their next match Sam Sherratt defeated Centennial 15-11, 15-6.

With the two wins, the Sam Sherratt girls are 5-1 with 16 points while Centennial and Stewarttown are both in second at 4-2 with 14 points.

Centennial's girls defeated McKenzie Smith in their other games 15-6, 15-10.

Stewarttown edged W.I. Dick 15-10, 15-11 dropping W.I. Dick to fourth at 2-4 with 10 points. McKenzie Smith is fifth at 2-3 and nine points and Brookville is 0-5.

The Sam Sherratt boys are still undefeated at 6-0 after beating Stewarttown 15-4, 15-9 and Centennial 15-11, 15-7.

Centennial still remains in a tie for second despite losing their other match to McKenzie Smith by scores of 9-15, 15-4, 6-15.

There's a logjam in the middle of the boys pack with four schools separated by two points.

Centennial and Stewarttown are both 3-3 with 12 points, McKenzie Smith is 3-2 at 10 points and W.I. Dick is next at 2-4 and 10 points. Brookville is at 0-6.
