PDS Raiders sparkle on road

By Marg Fantegrossi

The Georgetown Minor Atom Raiders were on the move last week as they travelled over 500 kilometers for their three road games and made it all worthwhile sweeping three impressive wins.

The Raiders, sponsored by Professional Demonstration Services (PDS), dumped their Brantford hosts, 9-2.

In the opening period, Ryan Busby scored twice, and Brad Snow added an unassisted beauty after an awesome deking play. Brantford netted a goal to make it 3-1 after the first.

In the second period, Kevin Binsell shot in a short-handed goal from Mark Fantegrossi's behind-the-net pass. The two linemates connected again 23 seconds later with another short-handed marker to make it 5-1 for Georgetown.

Early in the third, Brantford managed to put one past goaltender Chris Henderson, but then the Raiders offense dominated with another four goals: two by Kyle Hotham, and singles for Tim Mansfield and Doug Martin. Earning assists in the game were Mark Fantegrossi (3), Nick Black (2), Kevin Binsell (2), Scott Pike, Brad Snow, and Ronny Larocque.

Three days later the Raiders collected a 4-1 victory over Flamborough. Snow poked the first one in after Mansfield's deking effort. Busby shot in the second goal for Georgetown after a nice four-way passing play. Later, with more solid passing support, Busby fired in his second of the night. Snow scored a rebounder in the third from Hotham's shot.

With just over a minute left in the game, Ryan LaRose who stopped more than a dozen shots, had to give up his shutout. Assisting on the Raiders' four goals were Mansfield (4), Black, Fantegrossi and Hotham.

The next night, October 29, the Raiders bombed out the Dundas squad 8-1. Goal scorers were Hotham (2), T.J. Monaghan (2), Busby, Ryan Field, Snow and Fantegrossi. Collecting assists were Black (2), Busby (2), Larocque, Binsell, Mansfield, Field, Snow, Hotham, Monaghan and Fantegrossi. Henderson played a good game in net, and Dundas broke his shutout with only 1:37 remaining.

With these three wins the Raiders elevate their record to 5 and 1.

Hockey a great sport

By John Henderson

Hockey has been a tradition in Georgetown since nearly the turn of the century. There are pictures in the lobby of Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena of teams from the early 1900s. It was here that the late Gordon Alcott started kids hockey leagues. Now Georgetown is known as "Home of the Little N.H.L."

That hockey tradition is growing in Georgetown again. The number of players registered in Georgetown Minor Hockey has grown substantially this year to force the number of teams in minor hockey from 48 in 1992-93 to 55 teams for the 1993-94 season.

The cost to run the 55 teams with over 850 players and all their programs such as the initiation program, power skating, goalie clinics, is just incredible.

Without the help of the 200 volunteers, the fundraising and the many sponsors this could not be done.

Other large expenses include ice rental, the largest expense, referees, and equipment.

If you or someone you know would like to sponsor a team in the G.M.H.A., please phone the hockey office in the evening at 877-9694. Hopefully by next print we can have all teams in the G.M.H.A. with team names instead of just team numbers.

Hockey is a great sport to watch and to play. Gordon Alcott and his friends must have realized that hockey would teach youngsters discipline, sacrifice, team work and good sportsmanship they could carry with them through the rest of their lives.

The memories and the friendships they create go a long way and last for a long time.

Minor PeeWees dump Brantford

On October 25, Georgetown Minor PeeWee hockey team played Brantford in a 3-1 Georgetown win.

Andrew Black scored the first goal at 4:34 of the first period with assists going to Ryan Bobor and Josh Travers.

Georgetown's second goal was scored short-handed at 5:27 of the second period by Jason Campbell and assists going to Roddy Heinz and Brian Stuttard. Brantford came back with a power play goal at 4:29 of the second period.

Georgetown's third goal came at 11:28 of the third period with Mike Rovere scoring and assists going to Ryan Bobor, his second of the game, and Brent McClung.

This score was only possible by great goaltending from Ryan Carter who faced 36 shots on net as compared to 20 for the Brantford goalie.

McNally Raiders hot at home

After suffering two tough losses on the road, the McNally Construction Minor Novice Raiders secured a win on home ice.

Last Tuesday the Raiders played host to Brantford at Gordon Alcott Arena and came away with a 1-0 victory.

The Raiders put in a strong effort to keep the game scoreless until late in the third period when Matt Hilts put one by the Brantford goalie.

Joel MacDonald made a nice pass from the corner to earn the assist.

Goaltenders Alex MacLeod and Jason Armstrong made some fantastic saves between the pipes for the shutout.

The Minor Novice Raiders next home game is Sunday, (tomorrow), 5 pm at Memorial Arena against Chinguacousy.
