SERVICE

It is the "BUZZ" word of the 1990's. Service is like the weather, everybody talks about it - but very few do anything about it. There are many promises of service - but there is a definite lack of deliveries. I have provided the finest in real estate services to sellers and buyers in this area for twenty-three years. I deliver! Call a realtor who cares! Call Bill Ellis, Associate Broker 877-9500 or Res. 877-7528.

Military items stolen from car

Police are still looking for the culprit(s) who stole various military equipment, including a 3 1/2' claymore sword, out of a vehicle parked at the armouries of the Fairgrounds in Georgetown Oct. 21. The culprit(s) broke the driver's door handle to gain entry. The value of the items, including utility pouches, a helmet liner and cover, a canteen and belt, was estimated at $2,300.

Hockey bag stolen

A 38-year-old Welland man who left his hockey bag beside his car while he returned to Georgetown Memorial Arena on Mill St. to get his keys Saturday afternoon, came back to find the bag and its contents, valued at $900, stolen.

Rude awakening

A police officer, investigating a car parked at Sixth Line and 10 Side Road in Georgetown early Saturday morning, found the Norval driver passed out at the wheel. According to a police report, the lights of the vehicle were on and the engine was still running. The man was charged with care and control, due to the hazard of his operating the vehicle under the influence of alcohol and over 80.
