

Open Door cow paddy draw

Open Door, a non-profit program, is celebrating its 10th year of operation in the Halton Hills region. It assists hundreds of youth each year, both through the Drop-in Centre and Young Parents Program.

As part of its celebrations, Open Door is having a fun fund-raiser to raise money for the organization with the help of Scotsdale Farm's "Catrina", a 1700 lb. show cow belonging to Mr. Emmerson Clark. Scotsdale Farm is owned by the Ontario Heritage Foundation and operated under the auspices of the Credit Valley Conservation Authority.

Next Saturday, Catrina will be released into a paddock which as been marked off into one square yard plots. Tickets are being sold on the squares at local malls, businesses as well as door-to-door.

Wherever Catrina drops her paddy, the person holding the corresponding square's number on their ticket will win a Panasonic CD player, courtesy of G/S Television.

Other prizes, which will be drawn for randomly, will include: a Sony Walkman, provided by G/S Television, a children's bicycle helmet donated by Ollie's Cycle & Ski, a cotton afghan, donated by Doreen Bergsma from My Hometown Gifts and family tickets to see the Dinosaur, Greatest Show on Earth, donated by Ontario Place. The event is being sponsored by AMJ Campbell Van Lines.

Open Door would like to thank all of the above mentioned persons, organizations and businesses who have offered their support to this event.

Caterina will give her best

Catrina, a 1700-pound show cow belonging to Emmerson Clark of Scotsdale part, will be playing a very important part (just to drop a hint or two) in an Open Door fundraiser. photo submitted
