Combined businesses aim to please customers

A new line of carpeting, Devon Manor by Barrymore, was recently introduced at Lakeview Flooring which has merged with A Touch of Class Kitchen Showroom Inc. on Hwy. 25 south of Acton. Owners Rob Charette and Bob Tremblay have joined forces to offer these complementing products to Halton Hills residents.

Bob Tremblay will add a further dimension to this service. Quality workmanship is the guarantee that Bob upholds and he offers brand-name carpeting and vinyl tiles as well as replacement windows as an addition to the business.

All types of cabinetry for bathrooms, kitchens or showroom counters, as well as cabinet building and design are still the prime areas of expertise for the staff and Charette family at A Touch of Class.

Formerly Lakeview Centre, Bob Tremblay takes over from Don Perry, owner and operator of this familiar Acton carpeting company for some 30 years. The combined experience in both fields will stand the partners in good stead as they continue to offer top quality products. Rob or Bob can be reached at 853-4577.

 DECEMBER 1, 1993

As part of the Public Consultation program for the Class Environmental Assessment for Additional Water Supply for the Georgetown Urban Area, the Region of Halton is forming a Public Liaison Committee.
