result, Yong's, as well as most Chinese restaurants do all of their deep frying in pure vegetable oil only. Stir-fried vegetables and low fat servings of meat, garnished with almonds, became a very popular dish. Lately, the Southern influence in cooking is revealed in the popularity of hot and spicy foods. From the usual Cantonese low fat, low salt entrees, served with steamed vegetables and rice, many patrons prefer Szechuan, a hot, peppery way of preparing Chinese food, originally from the Szechuan province of China.

Whatever the choice, a delicious Chinese meal served in Yong's friendly atmosphere can be topped with a cup of green Jasmine tea, served without cream or sugar, accompanied with a traditional fortune cookie.

Best Friends. Two young chatters, freshly combed and primed and fitted out in their best dresses, enjoy a quiet moment together before other guests, real and imagined, arrive for afternoon tea. Each has brought the other a beautiful gift, for no reason but to say "you're my friend." Six-time Plate Artist of the Year Sandra Kuck explores the very essence of girlhood in this nostalgic portrait. Porcelain, with specially designed decorative border. 20.6 cm.

Early Spring: Hooded Mergansers. The winner of the 1993 Wildlife Habitat Canada Conservation Stamp Program competition, now re-created on a fine porcelain plate! Canadian wildlife artist Ken Ferris captured the prestigious top honour with this amazingly realistic portrait of the colourful merganser set against blue/white snow. Features a reproduction of the stamp on the front. Your purchase benefits Wildlife Habitat Canada. Decorated with 22-karat gold rim. 20.6 cm.

Montgomery's of Georgetown is an authorized Bradford Exchange Dealer and carries a large selection of current and back issue collector plates plus plate frames, hangers and stands.
