House League Results Fair play codes

It is easy to forget your own behavior at times and get a little carried away with the excitement of seeing your child on the ice. Why don't you make a point of distributing your own 'rules'.

Parents' Code

- 1) Do not force an unwilling child to participate in sports;
- 2) Remember children are involved in organized sports for their enjoyment, not yours;
- 3) Encourage your child always to play by the rules;
- 4) Teach your child that honest effort is as important as victory so that the result of each game is accepted without undue disappointment;
- 5) Turn defeat to victory by helping your child work towards skill improvement and good sportsmanship. Never ridicule or yell at your child for making a mistake or losing a competition;
- 6) Remember that children learn best by example. Applaud good plays by your team and by members of the opposing team;
- 7) Do not publicly question the officials' judgment and never their honesty;
- 8) Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from children's sporting activities;
- 9) Recognize the value and importance of volunteer coaches. They give of their time and resources to provide recreational activities for your child.

Spectator's Code

- 1) Remember that children play organized sports for their own fun. They are not there to entertain you, and they are not miniature pro athletes;
- 2) Be on your best behavior. Don't use profane language or harass players, coaches or officials;
- 3) Applaud good plays by your own team and the visiting team;
- 4) Show respect for your team's opponents. Without them, there would be no game;
- 5) Never ridicule or scold a child for making a mistake during a competition;
- 6) Condemn the use of violence in all forms;
- 7) Respect the officials' decisions;
- 8) Encourage players always to play according to the rules.

GMHA Hockey news

Halton Hills This Week and GMHA have joined forces to put together our own pages in the paper. We have two pages dedicated solely to GMHA teams to list scores, game write-ups, team(s) of the week, sponsor of the week, game schedules, and general hockey news from GMHA. Mailboxes have been installed in both arenas for conveners, managers, coaches, team reporters to use to ensure your information gets to the paper.

Neck Guards: B.N.Q. certified neck guards will be mandatory equipment on all players by January 1, 1994. This rule is enforced by OMHA and if a player does not wear this approved neck guard during game or practice, he/she will not be allowed on the ice.

Get Acquainted Dance: set for Saturday, December 4 at Holy Cross Church Hall. Tickets are $10 per person, which includes D.J., buffet and door prizes. Tickets are available from Marilyn Alcorn - 873-7622; Robyn Spence - 877-2385 and Wayne Smith - 873-1429. Get your tickets now - only 250 available.

Hockey Moms: are meeting again on Monday, November 22, 7:30 at the Police Station. This night is primarily to begin assembling the Christmas stockings for the younger players. Lots of help is needed, 400 stockings using 1500 pieces must be cut. Bring your pinking shears, or just yourself and lend a hand.

Tournaments: Midget Tournament is January 1, 2, 7, 8 and 9. Help is always needed on the bar, in the kitchen and at the gate. Dave Curry is Chairperson, 873-7777. The Bantam Tournament is during March Break, March 12-20. Again, volunteers are necessary to run a successful tournament.

Bennett sees ice time with Oilers

Adam Bennett, a graduate of the Georgetown Minor Hockey Association, has enjoyed some recent playing time with the Edmonton Oilers following a trade that brought him to the rebuilding club from Chicago.

Bennett scored his first NHL goal last week against St. Louis on the power play and in five games has three points.

Confident that he would crack the Blackhawks lineup, Bennett was sent to the Indianapolis Ice of the International Hockey League.

Bennett was then traded to the Oilers for forward Kevin Todd and has seen plenty of ice time with Oilers high profile defenseman Dave Manson out with an injury.

Todd has four goals and three assists in 14 games with the Hawks.

Bennett and the Oilers, who just snapped a 14 game winless string with a win over Detroit, invade Maple Leaf Gardens Monday taking on the league leading Maple Leafs.
