Shevalier pacing North Bay Cents

Erin resident Jeff Shevalier is on his way to another big year with the North Bay Centennials of the Ontario Hockey League and in the process, is being scouted for the Canadian national junior team.

Shevalier, 20, the seventh round draft pick of the Los Angeles Kings in the 1992 Summer NHL Entry Draft, has continued where he left off last year with the Centennials, collecting 17 points (8 goals and 9 assists) in 12 games.

Last season Shevalier blossomed with 113 points (59 goals and 54 assists) for North Bay and this year the Centennials are enjoying top spot in the Leyden Division.

With the list of juniors who are being scouted released, Shevalier along with 11 other forwards, will be scouted for the Canadian camp scheduled to run from Dec.13-18 in Kitchener.

With players like Jason Arnott, Alexandre Daigle, Chris Pronger and Jocelyn Thibault doing well with their respective NHL teams many openings should be available on the roster.

The World Junior Hockey Championship are set for Ostrava, in the Czech Republic, beginning Dec.26.
