Initiation this Friday

By Harry Norton

This Friday is the Fall Initiation at the Branch. The ritual starts at 7:30 p.m. followed by refreshments. Come out and welcome these new members to the Legion family. Friday is also your last chance to have your child's name put on Santa's list. Don't let them be disappointed on Dec. 19 when Santa arrives at around 2 p.m.

Saturday the Fish and Chips Karaoke entertainment starts at 8 p.m., only $5 a person.

Most of the bridge players were out on Wednesday but only enough euchre players for 13 tables showed up on Thursday? I'm sure that the fact that it was Remembrance Day kept a lot of players away. Winners at bridge were Ward Hamilton, Lil Cook, and Muriel Savage. The winners for euchre were Dennis Rowley, Marguerite Atkinson, Uke, Helen Quinn and Lil Howsen.

The winners of the meat draw on Saturday were Bill Titus, Jean Earle, A. Allerby, A. Gordon, Gord McCutcheon, Doris Allen, Frank Pichell, Dave Thompson, A. Robinson, Pat

Acton Legion

Peterson, Angela Schmid Nettie Field, Colin Baker and David Davies for the big prize.

Coming Events Bridge, euchre and the meat draw on Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday.

General Branch 197 and Acton Rotary Club are again providing a Christmas dinner for seniors of Acton and District. To know how many will attend this annual event, anyone wishing to come must pick up a ticket at the Branch or from a member of the Rotary. A deposit of $2 per ticket is required when the ticket is picked up. The deposit will be returned when you arrive for dinner.

There are still a lot of members who have not paid their 1994 dues to they can qualify as an Early Bird. Remember Nov. 30 is the deadline to be an Early Bird.

By the way, if you are still looking for a location for that Christmas party or a Reception, Frank Koen advises that due to the unexpected cancellation, the auditorium is available for Saturday, Dec. 18.

Get Out and Stay Out

Many of you are unaware of how quickly fire spreads, or that most fire fatalities are caused by smoke inhalation, not the fire itself.

The "it will never happen to me" attitude is one you cannot afford to take, your life depends on how you act and react to a fire situation in your home, so be prepared. Try to remain calm, hysteria is contagious.

When there is smoke, drop to the floor and crawl to the safest, nearest exit, smoke rises, so keep low to the ground.

Don't waste time gathering valuables. Call the Fire Department from a neighbor's home. If you have any questions or require information on how to safeguard your home, please contact the Halton Hills Fire Department, Fire Prevention Division at 873-2600, Ext. 207 or 877-1133.
