Me and my girl opens

Georgetown Globe Productions is presenting the musical comedy "Me and My Girl" at the John Elliott Theatre, Georgetown. Opening night is Thursday, (tomorrow) - a benefit performance for the Georgetown and District Seniors' Association.

"Me and My Girl" is a fast-moving and very funny musical comedy. Originally produced in 1936 in London, England, it starred Lupino Lane. It was reviewed in 1985 to rave reviews and is still running in London and on Broadway, with several touring companies in North America.

Old favorites such as The Lambeth Walk, I'm Leanin' On A Lamp Post and The Sun Has Got A Hat On will have you toe-tapping and singing along with the cast.

Tickets are $12 and available at Royal LePage Real Estate, Guelph Street, Georgetown - in person only please. For further information please call 877-4323.

Don't miss this opportunity to enjoy a fun-filled evening of entertainment.

Big day planned for Sunday

By Betty Sojka

The big day at the Community Centre is fast approaching! This Sunday, between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. will be the time to view hundreds of crafts at the community centre. Where else can you go to see the incredible works of some very crafty people, have lunch and a chance to win a craft?

For every $5 spent you get an entry for a draw. Every vendor will be donating one time towards the draw. There will be sewing, knitted toys, dough people, toll painting, small furniture, quilts, etc.

Santa will also be on hand between 2 and 4 p.m. for the younger fry to have pictures taken with him. For those with a sweet tooth, there will be a bake table. Come on out! You will really enjoy yourself.

There were nine tables of players at the Thursday euchre. Jean Cunningham captured High Lady's with Mabel Hives coming in second. High Men's was won by Al Pembleton. Dave Humphreys had the second highest points. The two dollar booby prize went to

Ballinafad News

Cathy Humphreys. There was lots of food supplied by Bonnie Walker, Henning Rasmussen, Virginia Swindlehurst and Mabel Hives. Many thanks to these kind people. Proceeds from the euchre went to the park.

The Women's Institute's Oct. 3 meeting was held in the evening, at the home of Mrs. Grace McEnery in Acton. The theme was Education and Culture. All members and one visitor were present.

W.I. President, Margaret Jamieson opened the meeting with an inspirational poem. For roll call, the ladies had to "Tell About the Most Unusual Building You Have Seen". Many of the members brought along pictures to help describe the rather interesting structures that included Chicago's Sears Building, Sudbury's Science North, and movie studios in California.

Betty Kooperdradd as meeting convener shared this gem with the group, "Conversation is good to rub and polish the brain against others!" She also conducted a lively quiz on the eastern provinces. Previous meeting minutes and financial statement were given by Secretary Ada Kirkwood. Topics of business discussed included reviewing of several catering jobs, the Christmas meeting, euchres at the community centre, and Ada Kirkwood's report of the W.I. Area Convention at Brussels, on Oct. 28 and 29. At the meeting's end, a light lunch was served by and Grace McEnery.
