

Atom Hurricanes still on track

The Halton Major Atom AAA Hurricanes, sponsored by Big Arn's Sports and Don Cherry's Restaurant, racked up two more wins this week in games against Barrie and Burlington.

Playing host to the Barrie Flyers at Erin arena, the Hurricanes shut out their guests 4-0.

Goaltender Andrew Penner was unbeatable to earn his shutout. Halton goals came from Chris Alarie, Joel Petkoff, Jarrett Konkle, and Tyler Grinyer. Linemates Alarie, Petkoff, and Konkle also earned assists on each other's goals and other assists went to Mike Watters, Scott Nairn and Jordan Jeans.

Great defensive skills were evident, in the win, by Carter Trevisani, Butterworth, Jacob Bayley, Frasier Komow and Jordan Jeans.

The Halton Squad visited Burlington on Sunday, and in a close, exciting match, emerged victorious with a score of 4-2.

Burlington struck first in the battle, but Chris Alarie soon netted one for the Hurricanes, on a pass from Joel Petkoff. Jarrett Konkle had the next two for the visitors with assists from Petkoff, Alarie and defenseman Frasier Komow.

Great goaltending by Halton's Matt Kerfoot and terrific effort by the defense kept Burlington from tying the game, and with just 7 seconds remaining and Burlington's goalie out, Jeff Brownlee easily found the empty net to cinch the win. Also contributing to the victory were hardworking forwards, Scott Nairn, Tyler Grinyer, Craig MacDonald, Mike Watters and Michael Knoepfli.

The Hurricanes play host to the Welland Tigers at Alcott Arena this Saturday, 2:30 p.m. and then take their record (which now stands at 9-1-2) on the road on Sunday to visit the Brampton Maroons.

Clayton rink awesome

The curling season is underway at Georgetown's house of granite, North Halton Golf and Country Club on Maple Avenue.

League play is into its fourth week and the week-end bonspiel slate has commenced.

This past weekend featured a men's playdown for a berth in the Holiday Inn Challenge competition to be held in Alliston during the first weekend in December.

This event, sponsored by Jules Russiani's Halton Hills Tire Centre in Moore Park Plaza, is dubbed the "Firestone Challenge". Its championship game was held on Sunday afternoon between rinks skipped by Andy Clayton and Gary Mizener. It was their second meeting of the double knockout event.

The game started out in classic fashion. Clayton grabbed a point in the first and Mizener two in the second. Then, the Clayton squad, comprised of Todd MacIntyre, Al Thompson and Bill Rivers, began to show what it had all week-end. With steady, deliberate shot-making, they could do no wrong.

This seeming team of destiny, captured single points in the third, fourth and fifth ends. Then, it closed the fate of the Mizener foursome with a big three-point steal in the sixth. Mizener and his crew could only squeeze a single point from Clayton's boys before they ran out of rocks. The final tally was an impressive 8-3 count with a house showing four more white stones.

Undefeated, the Clayton squad should represent the local club well at the zone event.

Future events for November include the "Glad Robinson" bonspiel for women sponsored by Work That Body on Nov. 21 and the Sleeman's Men's Tankard team entry play-downs on Nov. 27 and 28.

MEXICO

Every season brings new reasons to visit Mexico - a land of many suns.

In Mexico City the Floating Gardens of Xochimilco have been restored to their original beauty. There, while mariachi serenade, you will be ferried in flower-bedecked boats along canals dating back to Aztec times - a living link to Mexico's ancient past.

At resorts from Los Cabos to Cancun, handsome new golf courses and full-service marinas are debuting, adding more opportunities for world-class fishing, water sports and golf. Also tours combining beach resorts, colonial treasures, archeological sites and natural wonders can easily be arranged.

When you visit Mexico you can experience its amazing diversity, from the colonial cities of the heartland to the Maya temples and white beaches of the Yucatan.
