

New Chief announced

A new Police Chief has been appointed for the Halton Regional Police Services.

Peter James Campbell accepted his appointment Thursday at a special police service board meeting and will be assuming his duties Jan. 1. Campbell is presently Deputy Commissioner of the Ontario Provincial Police.

Current Halton Regional police chief, James Harding, will be retiring Dec. 31.

A full biography of Campbell will be available in the following edition of HHTW.

Calendar candidates sought

The emergency services of Halton Region are asking for the public's assistance by nominating their favorite candidates for the 1995-9-1-1 Calendar. Nominations are now being accepted for any Halton Region (male or female) police officer, fire fighter, ambulance attendant or any 9-1-1 civilian member of these services.

This is a charitable fundraiser and all proceeds will be donated to:

Oakville-Trafalgar Memorial Hospital, Milton District Hospital, Joseph Brant Memorial Hospital, Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital and Shriners Hospital.

Ballots are available at any police, fire or ambulance station throughout the Region and will be accepted until Dec. 31.

The calendars will go on sale in September 1994 in local shopping malls, hospitals, police, fire and ambulance stations.

Unanimous MVA approval

By Oksana Buhel

A year of tax reform research and numerous debates and discussions between regional councillors, staff, and their provincial counterparts, culminated Wednesday at the Halton Regional council meeting, with councillors voting unanimously to accept provincial recommendations for market value assessment (MVA) implementation.

Starting Jan. 2, provincial staff members will be working from the old regional material recycling building on South Service Rd. in Oakville, gathering data on 1992 property values. The process will include physical assessments and searching through real estate records.

Halton Regional chairman, Peter Pomeroy, specu-lated the examination will last "most of next year."

With the tremendous amount of anxiety to complete everything by the Nov. 15 deadline, Pomeroy was relieved the main part of the project has been concluded.

"We (Halton Region) were really fortunate the province approved our request for tax reform," Pomeroy said. "Metro (Toronto) asked for similar consideration but they were turned down. It looks like we just slipped under the door."

Attention Leather Lovers

The proper care for leather and suede begins at home by following these simple care tips.

- Wear a scarf to protect the collar area from perspiration and body oils.
- If the garment gets wet, let it air dry away from heat.
- Store leather garments in a cool, ventilated area. Leather is subject to drying out if exposed to dry heat, and to mildew if stored in a hot, humid environment.

- Do not store leather in a plastic bag.
- If staining occurs, take the garment to Barragers Cleaners as soon as possible. Do not try to remove spots at home.
