

Novice Hurricanes refuse to lose

The Major Novice Halton Hurricanes climbed back into the driver's seat with back to back last week wins boosting their record to an impeccable 14-0-1

The first game of a home-and-home series with Burlington featured a first period display of goaltending larceny as Ryan McManus repeatedly robbed the opposition.

Halton finally broke the ice with a fine Ryan Ellis goal from two men down. Also contributing goals were Lucas Schott (2), Aaron Cowey (2), Chase Trull, and Mike Ley. Clem D'Orazio showed up ready to play and supported the goal scorers with four assists.

The defensive pairs of Scotty Enair, John Gleed, Adam Sturgeon, and Danny Walinga snuffed a surging third period opposition attack to ensure the 7-4 victory.

In the return match, Halton again benefited from a rock solid goaltending effort, this time by Matt Fielding.

Special teams, anchored by Sturgeon and Gleed, made few mistakes.

For it's part, the offense kept pace exchanging goals with the opposition until four unanswered markers late in the third cemented a 7-3 victory.

Ryan Ellis led the offence with a hat trick for a four-point game. Lucas Schott opened and closed the scoring with Clem D'Orazio (plus two assists) and Chase Trull rounding out the goal tally. Aaron Cowey had two assists while Matt Clarke and Scott Enair each had one. Josh Vanderbreggen had some nice moves clearing the puck up his wing and into the offensive zone.

In the final game, the team hosted Niagara Falls. A slew of penalties again resulted in playing short most of the game and the level of play dropped from the earlier day's games.

However Halton played well enough to win and handed the opposition a 6-4 decision.

There were some bright lights as Ellis had another hat trick (four points), while Trull played very well with one goal and two assists. Lucas Schott had a goal and Gleed put in a hard low shot from the right point. Dan Walinga, Scotty Enair, and Aaron Cowey recorded assists.

Ski Club expands its program

For the sixth year, a group of enthusiastic skiers from Oakville, Milton, Halton Hills, Erin, Hillsburgh and Guelph invite you to join their touring alpine ski club. Their schedule will take them to a variety of Collingwood area ski clubs for six days of downhill skiing during January and February '94.

They will be chauffeured in style aboard a Denny's Bus Lines of Acton highway coach to Blue Mountain, Alpine, Osler Bluff, Craigeleith, Georgian Peaks and Devil's Glen.

Last year's Thursday bus was fully booked with a waiting list, so the response to popular demand, the club is offering an additional bus on Tuesdays. The advantages of midweek skiing include being able to avoid lineups, enjoying preferred lift ticket rates and skiing uncrowded areas, including many of the private clubs. Instruction is optional: all levels available from beginner to recreational racing with a maximum class size of eight.

It's hard to find a better way to enjoy winter and these skiers can hardly wait for the season to begin.

Departures from Oakville, Georgetown and Erin/Hillsburgh.
