Fundraising efforts important to all

By John Henderson
Special to HHTW

There have been a lot of volunteers putting some great effort into the fund-raising program for the Georgetown Minor Hockey Association this year and for that, as a parent, I thank you.

The cost of registration has not gone up in three years now, and only because of the fund-raising volunteers who make up the shortfall.

The ticket sales are pretty slow coming in, so if you can get all your books sold and hand them back in, it would be of great help to the budget and committee.

The fund-raising committee decided to undertake this large project to ensure that the cost of registration would not have to be increased $50 for this season and also to give the kids a chance to win a prize at the same time.

Please get behind them, they need your help.

We still have one rep team and six house league teams without sponsors this year. If you have any interest or know of someone willing to sponsor, please phone Jackie Hotham at 877-5692.

The "Get Acquainted Dance" at Holy Cross Church on Saturday, Dec. 4 should be a good night. If you have not got your ticket yet, please ask the coach or manager of your kids' team or phone Wayne Smith at 873-1429. It would be a good place to have the parents' Christmas party.
