ACAPULCO
 ...dazzles with its glittering, nonstop nightlife, great shopping, restaurants and breathtaking bay.

At night you can dine high in the hills at a restaurant such as the famous El Campanario, while far below the lights around Acapulco Bay twinkle like a vast necklace. Watch the clavadistas dive from cliffs bearing torches at La Quebrada or dance at a different disco every night.

Take a leisurely ride down the famous Costera boulevard in a horse-drawn carriage or relax the day away on one of the many beaches. Enjoy a lunch cruise to Roqueta Island on the Aca Tiki or a voyage over to Puerto Marques Bay and the Acapulco Diamante area. Plan a trip to Taxco, well known for its silver jewelry and extravagantly baroque church. The new four-lane highway between Acapulco and Mexico City makes driving to Taxco and the capital a breeze.
