Halton 4-H top of the class

Halton 4-H members distinguished themselves as leaders at the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair. Six 4-H dairy members competed in the Scotiabank Hays Classic from Nov. 13-15. This show involves showmanship, conformation classes and exhibit competitions. This year there were 48 countries, regions, districts and provinces represented with 262 participants in total. All provinces were present except Newfoundland and British Columbia. 4-H members representing Halton at this National Show were Curtis Gregson, Georgetown; Heather Marshall, Milton; Jennifer and Todd Livock, Oakville; Tyler Brander, Norval and Connie Bennett, Burlington. Herdsman was Jason Brownridge, Milton. Showmanship results were as follows: Curtis Gregson - 9th Junior (out of 90); Todd Livock - 17th Intermediate (out of 93) and in Senior Showmanship - Connie Bennett was 3rd, Tyler Brander was 12th and Jennifer Livock was 16th (out of 77).

Tyler Brander and Heather Marshall placed 8th and 19th in the Senior Holstein class (out of 67) and Connie Bennett won the Holstein Summer Yearling Class (out of 55).

Grand Champion Calf was shown by Ghislan Leduc, Quebec Southwest; Reserve Champion Calf went to Connie Bennett, Halton and Honorable Mention was Julie Fletcher from Haldomand.

Halton placed 2nd in the Group of three; in the 2nd Group of five for Herdsman Exhibit and won the honor of Premier Club with total points of 152. Second was Durham West with 136 points and 3rd was Prince Edward Island with 114 points.

The primary purpose of the 4-H program is the personal development of Ontario Youth. 4-H members are 10-21 years of age. Anyone interested in 4-H may contact the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food in Georgetown.

Long-term care addressed

Halton Hills will no longer have last place provincial standing in long-term health care.

At Thursday's Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital board of directors meeting, board members approved the development of a 57-bed long-term care facility at the hospital.

Currently, Halton Hills has 69 long-term care beds per 1,000 population over 75. The provincial average is approximately 150 beds, while the regional average is 112.

The hospital's plan will require the relocation of the 36-bed Chronic Care Unit from the upper floor to the main floor of the Bennett Centre.

According to information distributed at Thursday's meeting, the decision of the hospital board is a preparatory step for the expected doubling of Halton Hills residents over the age of 75, from 992 in 1992 to 1834 by the year 2001.

Hospital Christmas sale

From the Georgetown Hospital Association Special to HHTW

Shirley Chaplin of Georgetown, one of ours we are proud to say, became a Provincial Life Member at the H.A.A.D (Hospital Auxiliaries Association of Ontario) convention in Toronto on Nov. 9. Several of us helped Shirley celebrate at the banquet at the Royal York.

The Hospital Gift Shop Christmas Sale will be from Nov. 29 - Dec. 4., Monday to Wednesday from 11 a.m. - 4 p.m. and 6:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Lots of stocking stuffers and more available. If you ordered Poinsettias, these will be available Dec. 2 in the hospital lobby.

Flowers in the display case are now being handled by our volunteers.

Why not give us a try. We are still in need of new volunteers to work in the Gift Shop, at the Visitors desk and in Fundraising. Call Betty at 877-3866 if you can help in any way.

Thanks to everyone who supported us at the Country and Western Dance and our Garage Sale.

Our Christmas Dinner and Dance is Dec. 4 and very nearly a sellout.
