M&M Raiders bomb Hespeler

The Georgetown M&M Pro Sports Minor Peewee Raiders came up with a big win last Sunday, shutting out Hespeler 7-0. Georgetown started out with good control of the game in the first period by keeping the puck in the Hespeler zone. The first goal was scored at the 5:38 mark, unassisted, by Josh Travers, followed shortly after at 4:55 by a goal from Matt Hotham assisted by a good pass from Mike Rovere. Georgetown's power play was in action for the 3rd goal at the 2:15 mark by Jason Campbell, assisted by Roddy Heinz and Matt Hotham. Good teamwork from Georgetown brought the first period to a quick end with Georgetown leading 3-0.

Hespeler determined to get on the scoreboard in the second period, turned up the heat with a few shots, but came up short due to the good goaltending by Ryan Carter. Good set-up plays by Roddy Heinz, Jason King, Jason Campbell, Jason Hayes and Bryan Stuttard almost resulted in several more goals but the Hespeler players blocked their efforts. Brent McClung and Derek Mitchell kept the Hespeler goalie busy with some good hard shots but the second period ended with a 3-0 lead still in effect for Georgetown.

With only one period left, the Hespeler team again tried with several shots and some close plays in front of the Georgetown net but Sean Muscat, Tommy Dales and goalie Ryan Carter refused to let the puck in. Hespeler had the advantage when Georgetown was short-handed but again, good plays and quick thinking by Brent McClung and Matt Hotham gave Ryan Bobor the opportunity to slip the 4th goal in for Georgetown. Good defense plays by Andrew Black and Bryan Stuttard kept Hespeler at a distance.

Again, back in the Hespeler end, Matt Hotham sent a good pass over to Brent McClung who then came up with one of his famous slapshots from the blueline which the Hespeler goalie never even saw, thus upping Georgetown's lead to 5-0. To add the finishing touches on the game, Josh Travers netted his second goal at the 1:31 mark brought the final numbers on the scoreboard Georgetown 7, Hespeler 0. A well deserved shutout for Ryan Carter and great effort for all players.

The team now stands at 10 wins and six losses. The next home game for the M&M Pro Sports Minor Peewee Raiders will be Sunday (tomorrow) against Milton, 5:30 p.m. at Georgetown Alcott Arena.
