Glad Robinson Bonspiel a celebration of the game

By Barbara Abray
Special to HHTW

The 19th annual Glad Robinson Bonspiel was held at North Halton Golf and Country Club, Curling Club last Sunday in memory of a charter member of the Curling Club who curled until she was 83-years-old. After that she watched and encouraged others in her favorite game.

Sponsored by Laurie Burns of Work That Body, 32 women took to the ice to celebrate Glad's joy in the game and at the end of the day, the winners added their names to the Glad Robinson trophy.

1st Place team: Skipped by Marg Giddings; Vice - Fiona MacRae; Second - Betty VanKlink and Lead - Linda Colgan.

A quarter point behind was the second place team, skipped by Mary wands; Vice - Lena Burns; Second - Betty Shepherd and Lead - Grace Rylett.

3rd Place team skipped by Sandy Peer; Vice - Ann French; Second - Colleen Jamieson and Lead Erna Gibson.

4th Place team skipped by Marian Smeaton; Vice - Elda Watts; Second - Kim Meeks and Lead Midge Whitfield.

Everyone enjoyed the day which was planned by Brenda Smith and her committee.

Each curler took home a copy of Work That Body Canadiana Cookbooks donated by Laurie Burns, as were the prizes for the winning teams. Thanks to Brenda and her committee and Laurie for another successful Glad Robinson spiel.
