Christmas in the Country at Halton Region Museum

This Saturday and Sunday, the annual Christmas in the Country will be held at the Halton Region Museum. Nestled below the Niagara Escarpment in Glen Eden Ski Area near Milton, the Museum offers a fest-filled afternoon from 12 to 4 p.m. on the 19th century home-stead.

Fresh-baked goods and hot apple cider will be served up in front of the open hearth to the musical accompaniment of the Halton Youth Symphony Quartets.

The jolly old Saint will be on hand himself as well as master magician Robert Presswood who will be entertaining youngsters from 2:30 - 3 p.m. each day in the tradition of children's Christmas parties a century ago. Ongoing throughout the afternoon are horse and sleigh rides and Christmas craft-making for both adults and children. The Museum's gift shop and local crafters will be open.

Admission to Christmas in the Country is free for children under 5, $4 for seniors and students, $5 for adults and $15 for families with two children. Swag-making lessons in the Museum's log cabin are $5 per person, including supplies. For more information, please call Karen at (905) 875-2200.

Beer busters wanted

Released by Sergeant Rod Cliffe

The Acton Brewers' Retail suffered a loss of more than $5,300 after a break-in during last summer's Civic Holiday weekend. Halton Police are seeking information that could identify possible suspects, and Crime Stoppers would like to hear from anyone who has some to offer.

A rear door to the store at 332 Queen St. was forced between 8 p.m. Saturday, July 31 and 7:45 a.m. Tuesday, August 3. Cash was removed from two safes that were peeled open inside the store. Also taken were several baseball style shirts bearing the names of Labatt's and Molson's, and nylon jackets from Labatt's. Some of the clothes were size medium, but most were size large or extra-large.

The dollar figure attached to the loss for this burglary includes $2,800 in damage alone.

If you have any information that leads to an arrest in this or any other case, you may be eligible for a cash reward of up to $1,000. You need not give your name and
