

Titus leads Reb wrestlers

By Mike Zrostek

Jason Titus of the Georgetown District High School Rebels wrestling team won his second straight weight-class championship in a tournament Saturday at Brock University in St. Catharines.

The Rebels, who have just started the wrestling campaign, enjoyed another fine outing in their second tournament of the year.

Along with Titus winning his weight class, GDHS had nine other wrestlers finish high in their respective weight classes.

Mitch Dodd, Mike Large, Ian Cox and Doug Dutchburn all finished in second place.

Colin Kay and Bill Stokes were third place finishers, while Mike Rowe and Mike

DeRyck finished in fifth place. Rick Melbeuf rounded out another successful day for the Rebels finishing sixth.

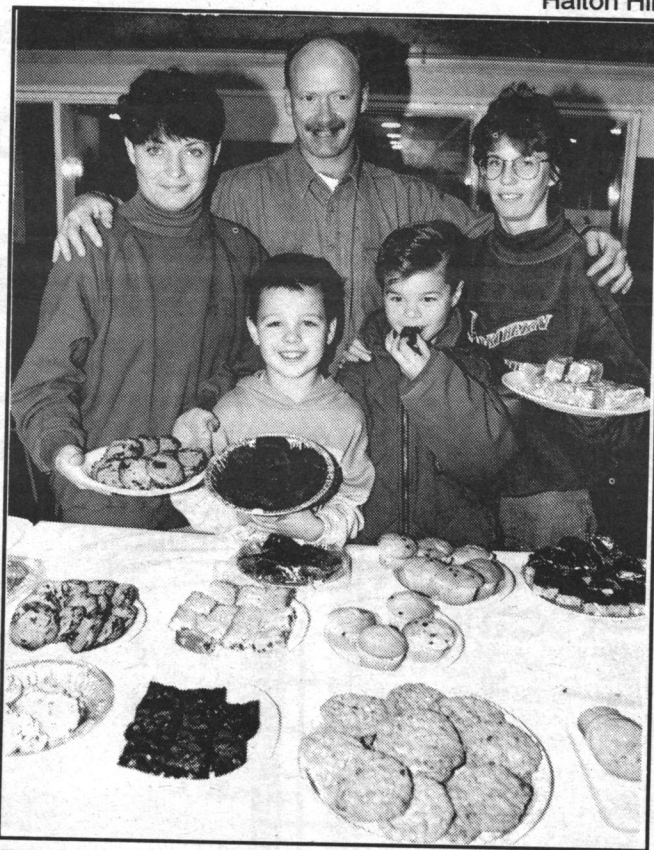

Coach Jim Hall was once again pleased with the Rebels efforts this past weekend and also with the great coaching done by assistant Nick Daniels.

"Nick brings lots of experience and knowledge to the mat and Jason wrestled great again, winning his second in a row," said Hall.

Next action for the Rebels wrestling squad will be the 4th annual Rookie Wrestling Tournament beginning Saturday, 10 a.m. at Georgetown District High School.

The tournament will feature 20 teams and about 200 wrestlers.
