Halton Hills athletes make Toronto Star honor role

By Colin Gibson

That Halton Hills has a proud athletic tradition, is a given. From hockey, to swimming, to fastball, to volleyball, to basketball, track and field and long distance running, the list can virtually cover the whole sports spectrum.

This proud tradition is also faithfully nurtured in area elementary schools and encouraged at the secondary school level at both Georgetown District High School and Acton High School.

Coaches and volunteers who provide the training, supervision and encouragement are very much a part of the sporting supremacy of Halton Hills, as our athletes are recognized - and indeed viewed with some trepidation - at sporting events throughout Ontario.

The Toronto Star newspaper recently polled 265 schools around the Greater Toronto Area and named a record 506 individual high school athletes to its 1993 honor role.

Recognized for their athletic prowess in Halton Region, were Kristy Johnson and Adam Poyntz of Georgetown District High School; Deanna Louth and Devon Ambrose of Acton High School and Georgetown residents Jackie Shaw and Tom Diardichuk of Bishop Paul Francis Reding Catholic high school in Milton.

This group of six young athletes have indeed carried our community's colors in many and varied competitions and make us all feel proud.

Kristy Johnson, GDHS: Recognized for her accomplishments in cross country running, badminton and track and field. She was also an active figure skater. Kristy is now attending Queen's University in Kingston, taking Phys. Ed.

Jackie Shaw, Bishop Reding: Recognized for her accomplishments in basketball, volleyball, badminton, track and field and cross country running. She was the team Most Valuable Player in basketball and led Bishop Reding a Halton Region championship. Currently completing her OACs with an eye to attending Lakehead University in Thunder Bay and taking Phys. Ed.

Deanna Louth, Acton High School: Recognized for her accomplishments in softball, basketball and volleyball. Deanna has since moved with her family to Calgary.

Adam Poyntz, GDHS: Recognized for his accomplishments in volleyball, basketball, baseball and badminton. Adam is presently attending Queen's University in Kingston, taking Business.

Tom Diardichuk, Bishop Reding: Recognized for his accomplishments in baseball, badminton, basketball and volleyball. Tom is attending the University of Ottawa and studying Law.

Devon Ambrose, Acton High School: Recognized for his accomplishments in tennis and volleyball. Devon is presently in Grade 12, taking some OACs, eyeing university to take business.

Rebels are Kings of the mat

By Mike Zrostek

Georgetown District High School wrestlers continue to pin down the competition this year, after the host Rebels won the 4th annual Rebels Rookie Wrestling Classic last Saturday.

GDHS captured the championship compiling 93 points. St. Francis Xavier (Mississauga) was second with 74 points and Brampton Centennial was third with 47 points, in the 19-team tournament that featured 169 wrestlers from southern Ontario.

Mike Egerton, Bill Stokes, Mike Hergaarten, Dave Campbell and Scott Snyder (who attends Acton High School but wrestles with the Rebels) all finished in first place in their respective weight classes.

Second place finishes went to Dwayne Boudreau, Matt Hamp and Jeremiah Jarvis (from Centennial Middle School). Matt Hamp and Carlos Scappin (from Acton High School) were third place finishers.

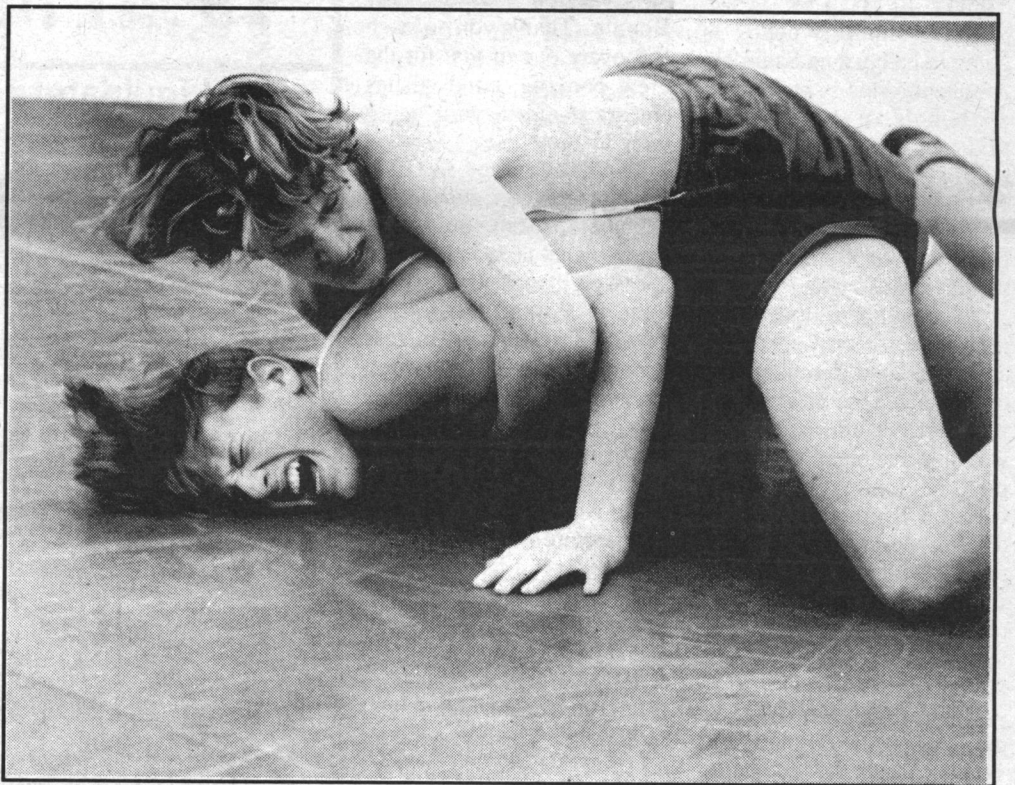

Nick Baker, Ben Cunningham, Chris Cunningham and Jamie Starrett all placed fourth.

Coach Jim Hall said the following wrestlers gained valuable experience on the weekend.

Jason Thomson, Scott Bentley, Jeff Karn, Keith Patterson, Richard Purves, J.T. Brecken, Dan Guitard and Peter McGee.

Hall would like to thank Debbie Titus, Jay Anderson, Natalie Goldson, Lesley Campbell and Karen Comber for their help at the meet.

Next action for the Rebels wrestling team will be Thursday (tomorrow) in Brampton and Saturday at College Heights in Kitchener.

No pain, no gain

Rebel pucksters continue to struggle

The Georgetown District High School Rebels boys hockey team continues to struggle in the early going, losing Nov. 30 at Assumption 8-1 and 6-1 Monday at Memorial Arena, to E.C. Drury of Milton.

With the loss Monday, the Rebels are off to a 0-4 start in regular season Halton league play.

Ryan Hay scored the only goal for the Rebels against Assumption.

Scott Wilson's rocket from the blueline was the lone goal for the Rebels, with Jeremy Hamp getting the assist, in the loss to E.C. Drury.

GDHS was down 2-1 after the first period. E.C. Drury added a shorthanded and power-play goal in the second that gave them a 4-1 lead after two periods.

E.C. Drury would add two more to ice the win. Next action for the Rebels is Wednesday (today) at Milton.
