The Georgetown Legion's in-house Fred Gilmer doubles tourney was held last Saturday. Previous winners self and Dennis Thorogood were there, with different partners, to battle several others for the honor of victory.

Harry Bottoms/Ken DeRose and Ron Scarlett/Beau Beaumont were among previous multi-winners although not present, and the trophy has many famous branch names listed, going back to the early 70s.

There were nine doubles taking part and split into two sections of round-robin play.

Self/Beau Beaumont and Dan Abercrombie/Larry Hunt came from topside. Lounge winners were Dennis Thorogood/Ray Ackroyd and Gary Rodda/Ian McDonald. The semis and final were held in the lounge and eventually Rodda/McDonald came through to win from Ackroyd/Thorogood. It was a fine sporting contest throughout with some very good scores being made.

Dream Team remain undefeated in the Industrial league with 13 wins from 13 matches, coming off a solid 7-2 win over Aces. Hustlers returned to winning form taking Bullsitters by the horns 8-1, and are nine points adrift. Gasketman move into third spot after their 8-1 win over Panthers. Westenders and Hotshots fought a close battle before 'Enders won by the odd set in nine. Steeprock stoned Ensigns 5-4 and in mid-table, Independents sunk Acadian Pools by 7-2.

Match of the week is the bottom of the table clash between Bandits and Firemen. Firemen were looking for their first win of the season but it was not to be. Matters looked black for the first three sets went to Bandits. Firemen struck back with two in a row, lost the sixth and won the next two to tie it all up. Bandits Mike Cherry prevailed with the winning double to win the set and match on the mad house double, 1. Rick Appleyard started three, finished one, scored 140 and 100 for a fine match. Cherry had three closes and two starts to go with his high score of 120.

High open was 130, that from Stan Rhynold, 128 came from Jim Franks, 120 from Mike Finn and Bruce Hope and John Burke began with 100. High score was 140 and was made by Ron Scarlett, Larry Hunt, Mike Pepper and Jeff Richardson. Dean Rayner popped the high close of the week with 80. Rhynold and Scarlett also each had five opens and al Gardner opened four.

The Industrial league does not have a shut down this holiday period coming up and the Alf Oates tourney is set for Wednesday, Dec. 22.
