Halton AAA Novice Hurricanes continue to storm

The Halton AAA Novice Hurricanes have rejoined league play this week with a win and loss against Brampton and Oakville respectively, after a very narrow defeat in the semi finals of the Guelph tournament the previous weekend. Tournament action was very exciting, with the boys showing excellent parity with some of the top teams from around Southwestern Ontario. Ryan Ellis and Ryan McManus split the MVP honors with each getting recognized in two of the four games played. The semi final was lost in overtime after Thornhill tied it up with two seconds remaining.

The Brampton game was a fast-paced effort with each player deserving special recognition for hard work and heads-up passing plays. The Hurricanes were down through most of the game but kept matching opponents scoring plays until the second half of the last period when Halton tied then moved ahead, finally closing with an empty netter.

Goal scorers were Lucas Schott and Ryan Ellis, each with two. Ryan added two assists. Chase Trull and Clem D'Orazio had one apiece. Adam Sturgeon chipped in with two assists. Trull, Scott Enair and Aaron Cowey had one helper each. Schott, Trull and Matt Clarke get accolades for two way effort throughout the game. Final was 6-4.

The Oakville game was a much more defensive game with Halton coming up on the short end of a 2-1 contest. The team could not get on track and did not play well enough to handle the powerful Oakville squad, which was especially motivated to avenge its defeat a couple of weeks ago.

The lone Hurricane marker was scored by Lucas Schott but this wasn't enough. The team record now stands at 16-3-1.

Hurricanes playing aggressively

The Flux Cored Halton Minor Novice AAA Hurricanes played very disciplined back-to-back games, shutting out Welland last Sunday 4-0 but dropping a tight 1-0 game to Brampton the next day.

Against Welland, the Hurricanes displayed an impressive checking game that frustrated Welland into taking many penalties resulting in Hurricane goals.

Tyler Czuba, Robbie Ogle, Todd Gilmore and Danny Syvert were the Hurricane goal scorers.

Peter Schultz, Patrick Sherren, Andrew Alarie, Nat Wicken and Czuba assisted.

The next night the Hurricanes took on Brampton, and it appeared the game would finish in a 0-0 tie, until Brampton netted one with just seven seconds left for the win.

Next action for the Hurricanes is Monday at Milton.
