By Bruce Fielding
Special to HHTW

In the much anticipated first league meeting between the powerful (4/loss) Welland team and our own Hurricanes at Welland, the team played standout hockey leading all the way until Welland broke through to tie it up in the third.

Pressure came late in the form of increasingly physical forechecking and penalty-

Vanderbreggen shutting down 3-on-2 and 2-on-1 rushes with the help of Dan Wallinga who never let anyone go by with the puck.

Goals were scored by Ryan Ellis (2), Lucas Schott (who was flying all over the ice all game long), and Mike Ley who received a beautiful pass from Matt Clarke's stick to go straight in on goal. Assists were also earned by Wallinga (2),
