Junior 'A' Notes OHA to help student athletes

The Ontario Hockey Association (OHA) Board of Directors has taken the necessary steps to form a foundation to provide financial assistance to graduating high schools students to attend Canadian Colleges and / or Universities under criteria to be set out for the 1995-96.

instead to disbursing the player development money, which comes from the National Hockey League, once a player successfully attains that level, throughout its system.

Currently, the OHA has three scholarships at the University of Western Ontario at London, the University of Toronto and Queen's University at Kingston.

Scholarships at the University of Windsor, the University of Waterloo and Wilfrid Laurier University, also at Waterloo are under consideration.

Teams fined
The Board of Directors voted in favor of fining the Streetsville Derbys and the Hamilton Kilty B's, and the Lindsay Bears and the Orillia Terriers of the Provincial Junior A Hockey League $500 each for pre-game incidents earlier this season.

Proposal studied
The OHA Board is studying a proposal to eliminate player release fees at all levels of the sport with a view

All-Star games
The two all-star games for the Junior A league are set to go, with the O.H.A. Central Ontario Rookie All-Star game set for Dec. 30 in Newmarket at the Recreation Complex.

The Georgetown Chrysler Raiders have sent in four player names for the game that will see the East take on the West with each team carrying 22 players.

Winger, David Bouskill, defenseman Jason Parks and Shaun Healy and goaltender Nick Montessano names have been submitted.

The Provincial Junior A All-Star game will be played Sat. Jan. 8 in Markham at 1:50 p.m.

Possible players to go from the Raiders could be forwards Ian Ellis, Doug Sheppard and Trevor Brandt.
