commemorative medal

Senator Guy Charbonneau, Speaker of the Canadian Senate, wrote Georgetown resident, Tom Ramautarsingh, "My warmest congratulations on being awarded the Commemorative Medal for the 125th Anniversary of Canadian confederation."

The citation from His Excellency the Right Honorable Ramon John Hnatyshyn (Governor General of Canada) states in part: "This award is being made to those persons who, like you, have made a significant contribution to Canada, to their community, or to their fellow Canadians. I extend my congratulations to you on receiving this honor."

Ramautarsingh has served with distinction, over the years, with numerous local and provincial organizations.

He evaluated text books for the Ontario Ministry of Education. He has written articles on the Canadian Constitution, the School Boards and Teachers' Negotiations Act, the Governor General of Canada and other important Canadians. He took time to submit a nine page type-written brief on Senate Reform.

Ramautarsingh gave the feature address at the Canada-Grenada Education Conference in 1984.

Presently, Ramautarsingh serves on the Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce, the Ontario Chamber of Commerce Education and Training Committee and the Council of Regents' Prior Learning Assessment Advisory Group which deals with the 23 Ontario Community Colleges.

Ramautarsingh said, "It is a great honor to be selected as a recipient of the Commemorative Medal and Citation which celebrate Canada's 125th Anniversary and the Queen of Canada's 40th Anniversary on the Throne."

"Canada is a wonderful country of opportunity, growth and development and to serve in the various fields is nothing but a joy. It brings great satisfaction to serve my fellow Canadians."

"We all owe a debt of gratitude to a country which opens its arms to people from different parts of the world. We must continue to strive to make Canada a better place for all to live."

"I wish, with a grateful heart, to thank the people from the Kitchener-Waterloo region and the many organizations which have done me the honor by nominating me."

"With grateful thanks to my dear wife, Betty, and children Jessie and Joe, for supporting me in the many endeavors and to the thousands of friends and colleagues who shared their ideas and performed so well in the many projects and activities."

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year
