Ballinafad News

The December Ballinafad Newsletter was mailed out Dec. 23. It went without a sponsor. If you could help out with the January edition, it would be greatly appreciated. The cost is the purchase of 100 postage stamps which amounts to $46.01 including taxes. You could be an anonymous sponsor or have your ad at the beginning of the newsletter. Take note of the upcoming events in the Dec. edition. There are a few dates you'll not want to miss!

The last U.C.W. meeting of the year was held Dec. 21 at the United Church in the form of a pot luck supper. Members had brought along guests, which made for a festive air. President Mrs. Joyce Clarke welcomed everyone. A Devotion with a Christmas theme was recited. Instead of a gift exchange, members had purchase items that were to have about a $5 value. These items were then auctioned off. What fun was had during the auction! There was $175 raised from the sales, all of which will be donated to the local food banks.

The folks that went to the New Year's Eve Dance got a pleasant surprise. The community centre looked great!

All the staircases have had the carpeting removed and have now been tiled. Wainscoting has been added everywhere where it wasn't before, including the bar. Major work has been done in all the bathrooms. Besides retiling the floors, here walls were replastered, with some walls even replaced and then a fresh coat of paint brightened things very nicely. New toilet paper and towel dispensers were added.

Lovely new wooden mirrors in the washrooms give a nice, homey effect. Brand new towel dispensers were also installed in both kitchens. Holders for brooms and mops were placed in the upstairs women's washrooms and in the walkway between the old and new basement, along with a few new brooms. The other great addition was the automatic air fresheners. What a difference!

Some heavy cleaning of all the walls and cupboards throughout had the community centre so nice, clean and shining to bring in the New Year. You'll have to get over to the community centre to appreciate all these changes.
