

June - Fire guts Hollywood Tavern

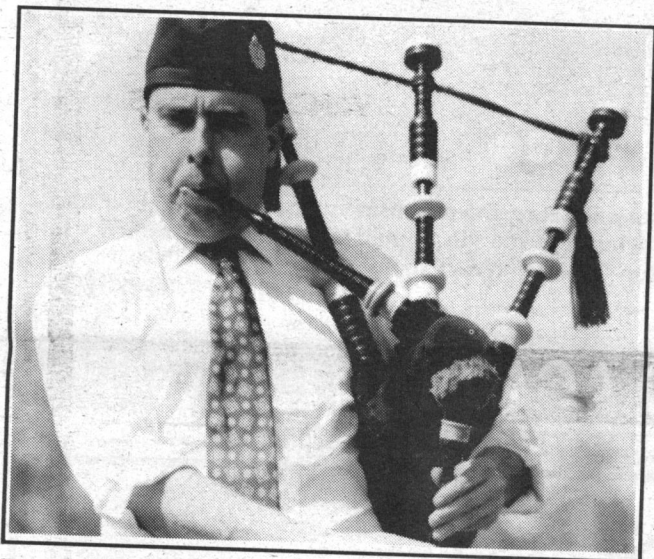

Bill Dempsey (left) Vice-president and General Manager of Valvoline Canada Ltd. and a member of the Board of Directors for Classics Against Cancer, shared a moment with Indy-car race driver Scott Goodyear during the 6th annual Classics Against Cancer Auto Show at Cedarvale Park in Georgetown.

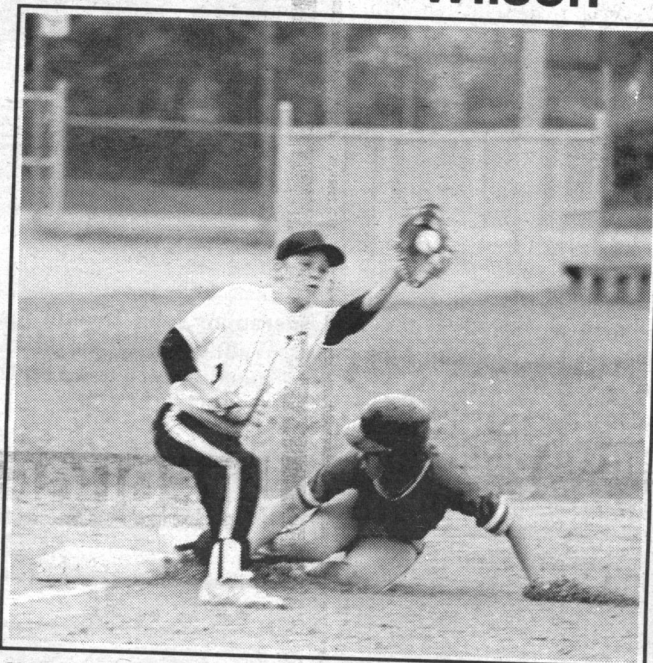

Eight-year-old Colleen Daly (left), and Rachael Johnston found this calf adorable at the Fairgrounds in Georgetown during the 18th annual Scottish Festival and Highland Games.

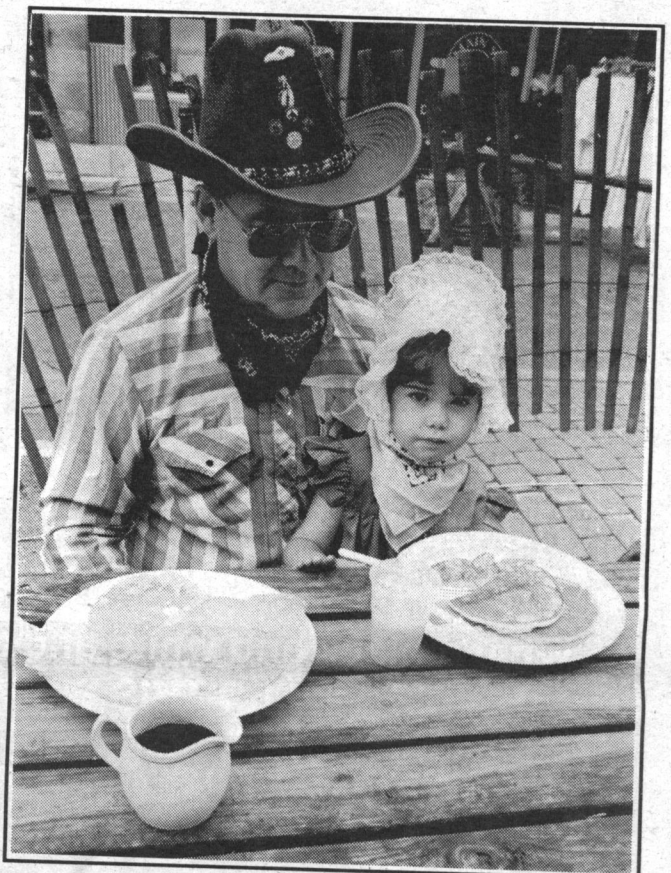

Photos by
Simon
Wilson

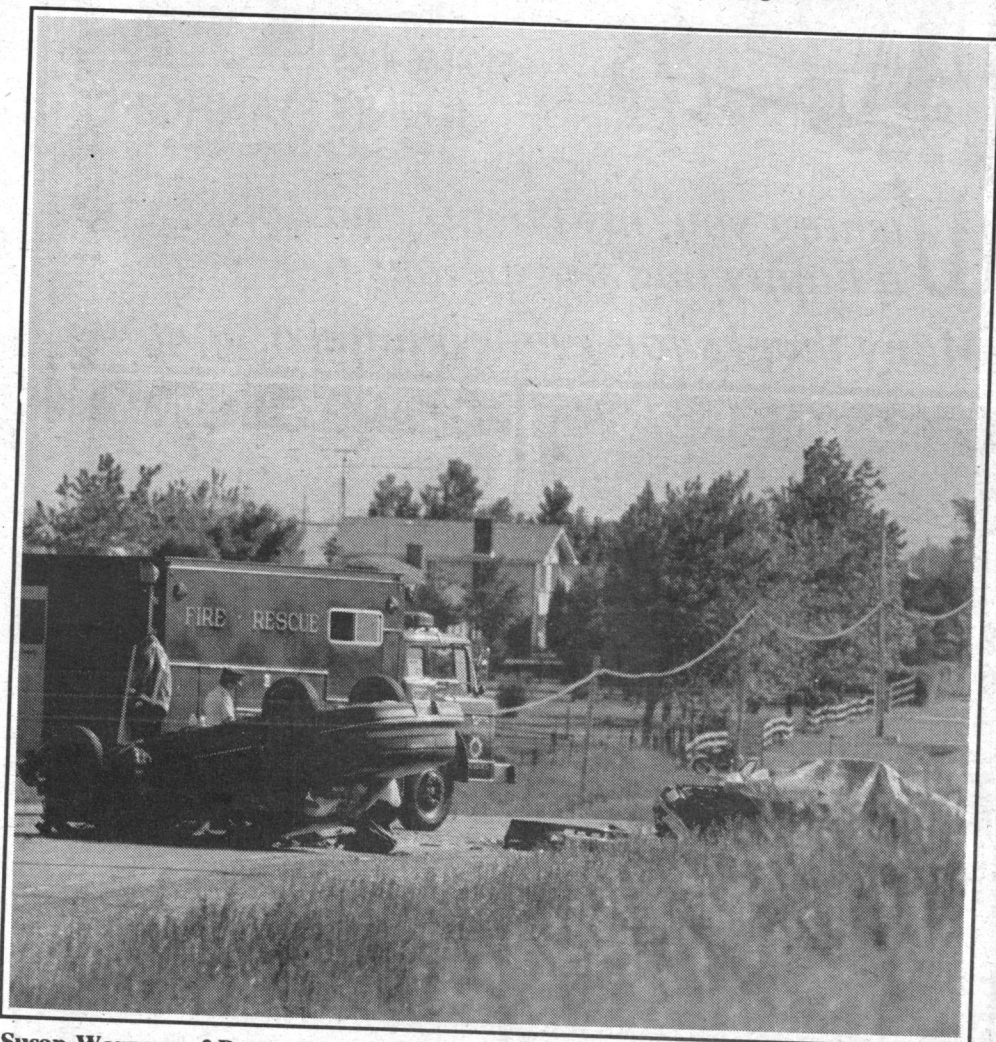

Ross May of Toronto contributed to the sound of the Scottish pride which could be heard at the Fairgrounds in Georgetown as part of the 18th annual Scottish Festival and Highland Games.

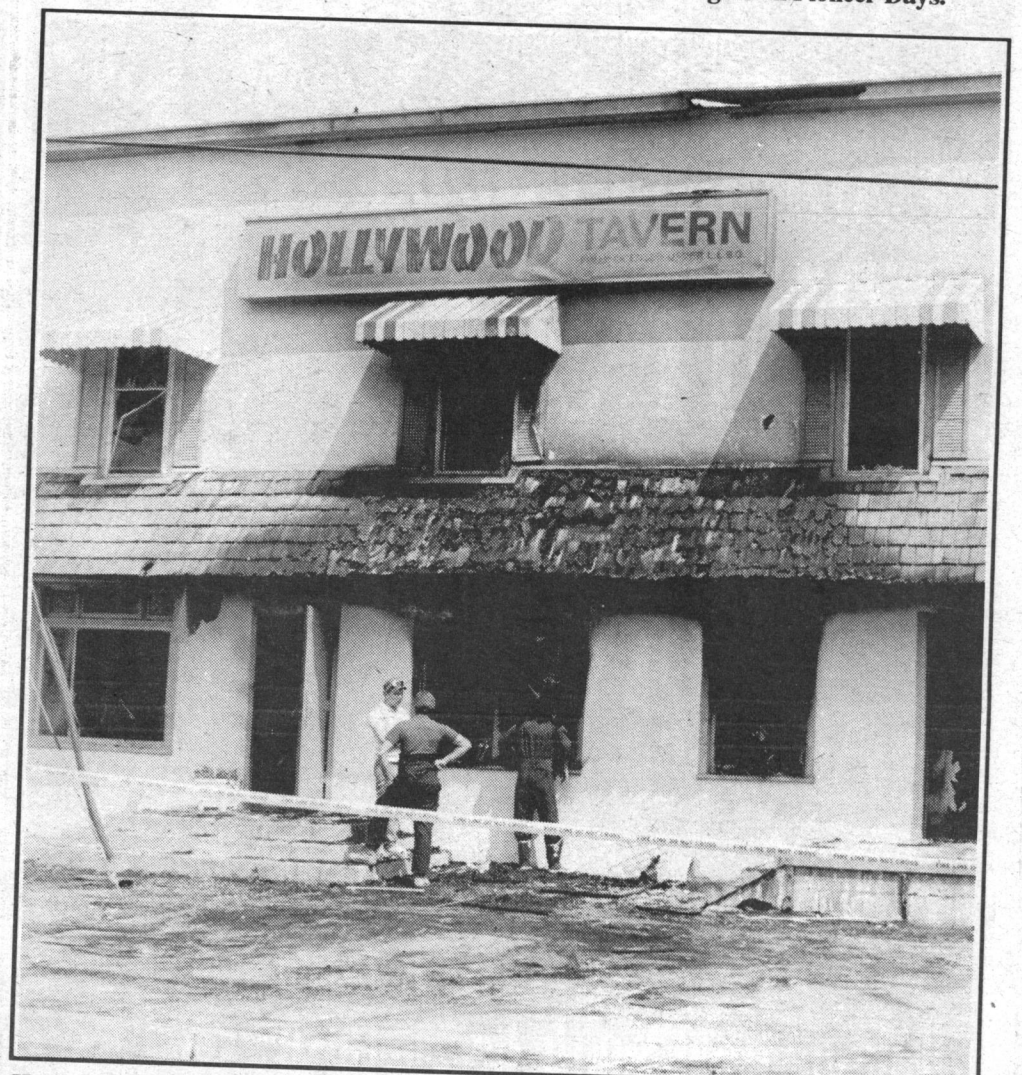

Simcoe base runner Justin Ferris slides safely into third, just as Georgetown Major Pee Wee Rep Capitol Ford third baseman Judd Richardson prepares to make the tag during a Pee Wee baseball tournament at the Fairgrounds.

Don McLean pours the maple syrup on thick for his 3-year-old grand-daughter Letitia at the Lion's Club Pioneer Days Breakfast, part of numerous special events at this year's downtown Georgetown Pioneer Days.

Susan Warnaar of Brampton was pronounced dead at the scene when her car (right) collided head-on with a westbound car driven by Brent Pickett of Milton at the corner of Steeles Ave. and Ninth Line. Pickett sustained minor injuries.

Halton Hills firefighters inspected the remains of the Hollywood Tavern on Guelph St. in Norval, which was gutted by flames.