Christmas Eve assault

Police Beat

A Guelph man faces numerous charges laid in a Christmas Eve incident which began when an argument turned physical and ended with impaired driving charges.

The 28-year-old man and his girlfriend were visiting an Acton resident when he started arguing with his girlfriend and was asked to leave. When the 23-year-old female homeowner picked up the phone to call police, the man ripped the phone cord out of the wall, and smashed a window as he left.

Police arrested the man a short time later and charged him with assault, mischief, utter threat, breach of probation, impaired and over 80.

Book theft

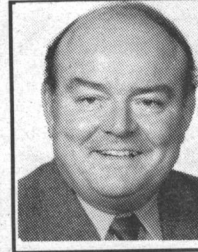

A 41-year-old male of no fixed address was charged on Christmas Eve after stealing a book from Coles Books in the Georgetown Marketplace and taking numerous items out of the charity box at the front of the store.

The man fled when mall security attempted to arrest him, and later resisted when arrested by a police officer. Another police officer was called for help.

Car ransacked

Almost $1,000 worth of goods were stolen out of a car parked Monday at Georgetown Marketplace. Articles included a gym bag, 35 mm underwater camera, Vuarnet sunglasses, men's leather dress shoes, socks, jeans and an electric screw gun.
