September - Midget Eagles are Ontario champs

The Georgetown Stanley Acme Track Midget Eagles brought the Georgetown Baseball Association it's second Ontario Championship in four years, as they walked off with the O.B.A Midget "C" in Courtright.

The Eagles were the class of the tournament winning five of their six games in the double-knockout format including an 8-4 comeback win in the championship over arch-rival Blenheim.

Down 3-1 after three innings the big turn around came off the bat of Doug Sheppard who crushed a 380-foot homer that lifted the Eagles spirits. The Eagles went on to score six in the fifth for an 8-3 lead, never looking back. Jose Mora relieved Paul Ingram in the sixth, shutting off Blenheim the rest of the way thanks to some great defense by Graham Kennedy, Joe Stephens and Ingram.

The Eagles had masterful performances in each of the six games by many players to help capture the title.

In the first game, Mora threw a 52 pitch two-hitter and was backed by errorless defense in the 11-0 whitewash of Bolton. The stars of that game were Roy Stuckless, Jim Katsilieris and Joe Stephens. Game two had another pitching gem, this one from Don McLeod who scattered three hits in a hard fought 3-1 victory. Steve Onoprijenko, Brett DeSouza and Kennedy each drove in two runs in the Eagles 9-6 win over Blenheim, their third game of the day. Kennedy also pitched well allowing only two hits over five innings before McLeod came in for the save. The Eagles then defeated Clinton 3-2 in game four then dropped a 4-3 decision to Blenheim, leading to the championship win.

Seniors bus service

Georgetown's senior citizens will have something new to smile about on Wednesdays. Thanks to the merchants of the Georgetown Marketplace, a free busing service was implemented to provide seniors with a reliable source of transportation to Georgetown's Marketplace.

The bus stops were located at all four of Georgetown's seniors living complexes. The pick-up schedule ran as follows; at 10 a.m., the bus arrived at Kin Court near Hyde Park (close to Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital), it then headed to Cote Terrace (Main and Maple) at 10:15 a.m. At 10:30 a.m., the bus arrived at 8 Durham St. and by 10:40 a.m. it was scheduled to reach 11 Sargent Rd. Shopping time was from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Passengers disembarked at the food court entrance to the Marketplace, located between Sears and Coffee Time Donuts, and the return started approximately two hour later.
