

Leathertown Feed in tight soccer matches with Hillsburgh, Woolwich

Leathertown Feed & Pet Supply's Under-12 Five County All Star minor soccer team has registered a tie and a loss in a pair of games thus far in the early season.

The boys and girls mixed squad's first encounter was at Hillsburgh, with the locals emerging with a 5-5 draw in an action-packed matchup. It was a frustrating night for Acton as initially the team had been directed to the wrong field and hastily had to speed from Erin to Hillsburgh and try to complete the game before daylight faded completely.

Acton's second game at home against the very strong Woolwich team was a challenge that was met bravely. The locals pulled ahead of Woolwich but with only minutes to spare, the visitors managed to tie the score and then find the back of the Acton net once again to pull off a very close win at 6-5. Once again, the Acton team played an excellent game. Chris Adema was outstanding in goal. ■

Lions Club Atoms annihilate Limehouse

Acton's Lions Club Atoms II triumphed over Limehouse with a 21-3 drubbing in minor softball action last Tuesday in Limehouse.

Ryan Turpin knocked out two homers for the Acton side, registering four RBIs, and David Schmuki hit a grand slam for the locals. Chad Greenwood, Travis Stewart and Peter Topolay each recorded triples in the win. Craig Lockwood registered both a double and a single in the game, with Michael Kentner, Jason Wells and David Albano hitting singles. Brydon Perry got on base with three walks, David Wells made it with a pair of walks, while Jamie Dunn and Justin Lockerbie each touched base.

It was a tough home loss for Limehouse despite the efforts of Mark Bailey, Jamie Deforest and Greg Corman, who all had strong outings.

The next day (Wednesday) in Glen Williams, the Acton crew came away with a 17-12 win over the host squad.

David Albano knocked in a pair of RBIs in this game, registering a home run and a single, while Chad Greenwood stroked a homer and two singles for the locals. Brydon Perry recorded a home run for the team as well. Craig Lockwood belted out a triple and a single-bagger, while Jamie Dunn notched a double, single and a walk. Travis Stewart, Joey Thompson and David Wells each tallied singles. Jason Wells and Peter Topolay made it to base with walks.

In the bottom of the fourth inning it was a 9-8 score in favour of Acton. The locals cashed in a total of eight runs in the fifth frame, though, with David Wells hitting a single for two RBIs. David Albano hit a homer for two more RBIs, then Brydon Perry hit a homer. In the bottom of the fifth inning, Acton hurler Ryan Turpin allowed a few walks but came back with three strikeouts to shut down the Glen. ■

Weatherall is big gun for Acton's Tim Horton Rams

The Acton Novice Tim Horton Rams minor lacrosse squad ventured up to Arthur last Tuesday and suffered a hard fought 9-5 loss.

Leading the way for the locals was Ryan Weatherall, who netted four goals. Stephen Monaghan banged in a single marker. Racking up the assists for the Tim Horton Rams was underage goalie Lucas Schotte, with two helpers, and Chelsea Young and Noah Maynosky, with singles.

After their modest success against Arthur, the Rams travelled on Saturday into Elora for a one-day tournament with raised expectations. Meeting Midland in their opening game, the Rams met up with little opposition as Acton cruised past a determined but outclassed Midland squad by a count of 10-5.

Leading the Rams onslaught was again captain Ryan Weatherall with four goals and one assist. Banging double markers were Joel Petkoff and Stephen Monaghan, while single tallies went to Marty Gordon and Gregg Tummonds, who also picked up one assist. Helping out on the goals were Daniel Charland and Brandon Valente with one assist each, while Mathew Hall chipped in with two helpers.

In game two of the tournament, the Tim Horton Rams found themselves staring into the masks of last year's all-Ontario Provincial B champions, the Whitby Warriors.

Although Acton found themselves on the short end of an 11-2 beating, the Rams earned some high respect with a gutsy and dogged effort, with some fine work by goalie Lucas Schott and a tough display of second effort by everyone.

Scoring for Acton were Ryan Weatherall and Brandon Valente.

The lineup for the Tim Horton Rams includes Lucas Schott, Ryan Weatherall, Daniel Charland, Jason McGuire, Brandon Valente, Marty Gordon, Joel Petkoff, Gregg Tummonds, Stephen Monaghan, Terri McCaslin, Frederick Allen, Casey Woodman, Chelsea Young and Mathew Hall.

Next game for the Novices is this Thursday in Acton at 7:30 pm. Guelph will provide the opposition. ■

Glen Williams triumphs over Acton Legion

The visiting Acton Legion Branch 197 Peewee boys accepted a tough loss against Glen Williams in minor softball combat last Monday.

The Glen Williams squad emerged from the contest with a 11-9 victory over the locals.

For Acton, Ryan Townsend knocked in a pair of RBIs, registering two doubles. Teammate Sterling Luedee collected two doubles and a single with a single RBI. Robert Turpin and Michael Douglas contributed to the effort with a double and a walk each. ■

Tuitman's Under-16 Girls drop Brampton with big effort

Tuitman's Garden Centre and Landscaping Under-16 girls soccer team met Brampton III in Acton last Tuesday, coming away with a convincing 4-1 victory.

Jenny Goy was quick to find the back of the Brampton net within the first few minutes of play after the opening whistle.

The Brampton girls were hard-pur to keep up with Acton as the visitors had no substitutes. Acton followed its familiar form to take an early lead and build on it.

Jenny Goy found the back of the net a couple of times in the game, while single strikes were booted by Mia Tremblay and Elaine Campbell. Acton's goalie, Cari Chard, was a major contributor to the local club's win.

Tuitman's record now stands at 2-1. Next game for the team is tonight (Tuesday) at M.Z. Bennett against Caledon. Kickoff is slated for 7:30 pm. ■

Peewees draw with Fergus

Last Monday, the Crowe Construction-Newman Landscaping Peewees travelled to Fergus for an exciting minor lacrosse game that ended in a 6-6 tie.

Leading for Acton was Nathan Crowe with a natural hat trick, followed by a pair from Jason Fendley. Ronnie McCaslin added a goal, with assists going to Jeff Garrard (with two) and Chris Yeatman, Crowe, and Scott King, all with singles.

The Peewee's next game was at home — a 7-1 loss to a tough London. Acton offense couldn't beat the red-hot London goalie. Acton's lone goal came from Ronnie McCaslin, assisted by Matt Bodin.

Acton's next game will be at home tomorrow when the squad faces Fergus. Game time is 8:30 pm.
