Acton Roadrunners are still undefeated

Acton Roadrunners, Andy's Haulage and Georgetown Rent-All all were double-winners in Limehouse Men's Softball League action last week.

Last Monday, Jeff Hanes clouted a two-run homer in the second to lead Georgetown Rent-All to a 3-1 win over the Erin A's.

Last Tuesday, it was Steve Wilson, Dick Spear and Colin Lewis all blasting home runs in a 22-3 win for Andy's Haulage over Ballinafad Blue Jays.

Wednesday, the Acton Roadrunners got past the Limehouse Limelighters by a count of 8-2. Limehouse got out to an early 2-0 lead in this encounter, but the Roadrunners came back with home runs from Mark Kri and hurler Jerry Marshall.

Georgetown Rent-All shaded the Warriors 8-6 in Friday night action. Joel Priestley hit one out for Georgetown in this contest, while Rob Cooper picked up a homer for the Warriors.

Three tight games were contested in Sunday action. The Roadrunners blanked Rent-All 2-0 in a close battle in the day's opening match-up.

With the win, the Acton club took over top spot in the standings, with 14 points. Jerry Marshall and Frank Noseworthy both pounded round-trippers in the game. Marshall was in top form, pitching a three-hitter on way to recording the shutout.

In the second game it was Andy's Haulage eking out a 7-6 decision over the Warriors. Andy's played the game with only eight men, and didn't take the lead until their last at-bat. Kelly McArthur, Chuck Slawich and Dick Spear all belted homers to lead the winners.

In the day's final game it was the Erin A's edging out the Limehouse Limelighters 4-3.

Standings as of June 14:

Team	W	T	L	Pts.
Roadrunners	6	2	0	14
Andy's Haulage	5	1	2	11
Rent-All	5	1	3	11

Clarke connects for Panther grand slam

BY KAREN SMITH

Last Monday, Ballinafad defeated the Red Hots in Acton Ladies Recreational Softball action. Sandra Prowse and Ellen Woods each hit homers, and Lisa Longstreet, Elaine Bouwman and Carol Ann See scored for Ballinafad with triples and doubles. Elaine Hughes and Kelly Hoskins each hit homers and Hoskins also had a triple for the Red Hots.

Random downed Double Trouble last Tuesday in a close game. Cheryl McDonald hit two triples, Heather Webster had a single triple and Cheri Forbes belted a double for Random in the close game. Georgina Gaskill and Anissa Poloni each hit a triple and Cathy Vandenhoeck swung for a double for Double Trouble, but they couldn't stop Random.

The Marauders defeated the Red Hots on Wednesday at Prospect Park, in spite of Kim Duque's strong pitching and home run and Kelly Hoskin's second homer of the week. The Marauders' Susan Poulsen hit a home run and a double in the game, while Chris Stewart hit a triple and doubles were landed by Connie Bath, Shelley Young, Rita Kerkmann, as well as Penny and Trudy Harris.

The Panthers were victorious over Remax on Thursday. Dianne Clarke had a grand slam in the fifth inning and scored two other runs. Marilyn Eagles, Nancy Oakley, Bev Smith and Nadine Klooster also scored three times. Debbie Payne scored four runs for the Panthers. Remax's Kathy Hayward scored three runs. Denise Hass, Claudette McDonald,

Louise Herbert and Tammy Biffis each scored twice, but they couldn't hold back those "wild" Panthers!

The same day, Double Trouble was defeated by Four Seasons. Gale Weber and Laura Levick were top run earners with three each for the Four Seasons team.

Standings:

Team	W	L
Panthers	7	0
Marauders	5	2
Four Seasons	5	3
Random	5	3
Ballinafad	4	2
Remax	1	5
Double Trouble	1	7
Red Hots	1	7
