Lions Club edged in final of successful tourney

On Friday evening and Saturday at Prospect Park the Acton Lions Club hosted their fourth annual Charity Softball Tournament.

The event proved successful again in raising much-needed funds for completion of the batting cage facility and donations to Canine Vision and Homes for the Deaf.

Twelve teams from Acton, Georgetown and Milton were on hand to participate in the festivities. Two of the Acton teams, the "Contenders" and the "Pretenders" were recruited from local residents associated with the Lions through minor softball and hockey.

Saturday's championship final between the Acton Lions Club and the Georgetown Elks Club was a fine contest between two tired clubs, with the Elks pulling away in the final frame to capture the crown 16-9.

In the consolation final Zellers defeated the Acton Contenders, who had edged the Milton Optimists to gain their spot in the final.

Acton Lion Jay Hodder was the unanimous choice as tournament

MVP, while Ken McMullen from the Elks Club was selected as the most sportsman-like.

Following the event the Acton Lions expressed thanks to Thompson Consumer Electronics and representative Steve Hendry for their donation of a video camera for the fund-raising draw. ■
