

MacMillan's drops first to Rockwood Soup squad

Rockwood Campbell's Soup Squirts knocked off Acton's previously undefeated MacMillan's Frozen Foods in minor soccer action Wednesday. Rockwood's Dustin Gamble, Kristan Wahlstrom and Chad Tyler all put their best feet forward to shut down MacMillan's and outstanding players J.D. Hatch, Galean Kerr and Lisa Wood.

In other Squirt soccer action, Acton's Merit Industrial topped Rockwood's Guelph OPP 3-1. Merit's Travis Medland came up big to hold OPP to one goal, while Gregory Corman, Michael Grierson and Adam Brouillard each found the mark for goals. Aynsley Anderson and Earl Hindley performed well for the Rockwood side in the game.

Wednesday also saw Grand Valley get past Acton's Home Hardware by a count of 3-1. Home Hardware struggled from the beginning in this game, holding Grand Valley to three goals while managing to score one themselves from a confident Shawn Meilleur.

On Thursday it was Mr. Mugs besting Blue Springs Flowers by a score of 1-0. The lone goal of the game came from the foot of Michael Gerrow of Mr. Mugs, while Shawna Godin, Neal Dawkins and Kory Killingbeck were all solid for the winners. Meighan McIntyre, Joel Savard and Robert Kelias were effective on the field for Blue Springs Flowers.

Super Sub gets by Grand Valley Atoms 6-1

Acton Super Sub travelled to Grand Valley and came away with a big 6-1 win in Atom minor soccer action last Tuesday.

Joel Petkoff was the hot striker for Super Sub in the game, netting four goals. D.J. King and Cameron Sisnett each put the ball behind the Grand Valley keeper once. Nathan Williamson also had a strong game for the locals.

The match was a super effort by both teams and Acton fought hard to keep the ball out of their end for most of the game. Excellent positional play and ball control was demonstrated by the Super Sub players.

HE SHOOTS, HE SAVES! NHL scoring star Brett Hull (top, with Blue Springs assistant pro Diane Kearns) was a big hit on the Acton links Thursday. Bottom, Toronto Maple Leaf netminder Grant Fuhr reaches for his new putter as he approaches the third green.

Squirt Girls come back to down Milton 23-20

BY DEVON AMBROSE

Acton's Squirt Girls defeated Milton 23-20 in minor softball action last Tuesday at Prospect Park.

Despite home runs by Melissa Pawlak and Kelly Holmes the Acton girls trailed going into the bottom of the last inning. However, the local side rallied with key hits by Kristen Mitchell, Tara Service and Dianne Allan driving in the winning runs. Acton coach Ruddy Holmes praised Debbie Machinter on her defensive play in the game.

Hockey superstars visit Acton for golf

Sports stars were out in full force in Acton for the Noma-Brett Hull Charity Celebrity Golf Tournament on Wednesday at Blue Springs Golf Course.

Several sports greats, including celebrated 19-year-old hockey star Eric Lindros, Toronto Maple Leafs Wendel Clark and Grant Fuhr, and Brett Hull of the St. Louis Blues tested the Dublin Line course and their skills in the first Noma Charity Celebrity Tournament.

The tournament raised more than $10,000 for juvenile diabetes research at Toronto's Hospital for Sick Children.

About 53 golfers took part in the tournament including some 15 celebrities.

A threesome led by Chris Lori, Canadian bobsled champion, won with a low score of 61.
