

Acton Ladies connect to take Glen

The Acton Ladies Fastball club seems to be back on track, as the side came up with a big win over Glen Williams at Prospect Park last Tuesday by a score of 5-1.

The Glen opened the scoring in the first, with a run on three hits.

However, in Acton's second at-bat Tracy Hagan led off with a single and Suzi Tufford smacked a double, scoring the run. Mel Spear connected for a single, scoring Tufford and giving the home side a 2-1 advantage.

In the bottom of the third frame, Boo Tufford doubled and was cashed in by a Hagan single, making the score 3-1.

Again in the fifth, it was Boo Tufford getting things started with a single, and later coming in to score on sister Suzi's RBI single. Spear then plated Suzi Tufford with a single.

After their opening at-bat the Glen offense was shut down by solid work in the field by the Acton Ladies. Mel Spear dominated on the mound, allowing only three hits in the contest while striking out seven over the final six innings.

The ladies played last night (Monday) in Georgetown and they will travel to Glen Williams for a Thursday evening encounter.

Super Sub's Petkoff connects for hat-trick

Super Sub defeated Acton Cleaners 4-1 in Atom minor soccer action last Tuesday.

Joel Petkoff had the big boot for the winners as he put three markers behind the Cleaners keeper. Cameron Sisnett connected for the other goal. Darren Selihar and Chris Near had strong games for Super Sub.

The Cleaners goal scorer was unavailable, but Shawn Gray and Mark Cripps turned in fine performances to keep the team close.

Rockwood bites

Advance Woodworking lost 5-1 to Rockwood in Mosquito minor soccer action Thursday in Acton.

The Acton squad was over their heads for most of this game, falling prey to superior passing skills demonstrated by the Rockwood club.

André Savard connected for the Acton marker in this game. Bobby McDougall and Mathew Morrow were also cited for strong play.

Al & Al's continue hot streak, brand Fergus 5-0

Al & Al's Red Brand Meats blanked a short-handed Fergus side 5-0 in Peewee minor soccer action Wednesday.

Derrick McIntyre, Paul Guy, Jamie Birrell and Jeff Adema all put the ball behind the overworked Fergus keeper in this game.

Fergus made the trip with only nine players and were down 3-0 at the end of the first half. The second half saw Acton defender Allan Deruelle don a Fergus jersey to help out the tired visitors, but the local side still managed to increase their lead to the 5-0 final.

Vet Clinic blanks Melina

Acton Veterinary Clinic blanked Melina Bakery 7-0 in local Mini-Squirt soccer action last Monday.

Julie Sisnett had a strong game for Melina while Leanne Wilson made a number of outstanding saves between the pipes. According to their coach, the Melina side was somewhat intimidated by the size of some Vet players, but made some real improvements on throw-ins.

In other Mini-Squirt action it was the Acton Town Milk Bulls hosting Rockwood. Goalies Katy Boychuk and Brian Hunt combined to give Acton a 1-0 win. Top players for Town Milk were Jeff Brill, with his second goal of the season, and Mathew Vanderleest.

B.P. Siding drops pair of close ones

B.P. Siding Atom Boys dropped a pair of tight contests in minor softball action last week.

The squad travelled to Limehouse last Tuesday evening and battled their hosts to a 24-19 loss. Jeffrey Cole clouted a homer and a triple for Acton, while Shane Haslam and Richard Fendley connected for doubles. Lucas Green, Jonathan Hicks, Vishal Kassie, Joshua Budgell, Corey Havens and Matthew Ishoy all had singles.

Also last week, B.P. travelled to Glen Williams and were defeated 8-7. Wayne Hopkins stroked a home run and a triple, with Matthew Ishoy pocketing a triple and Fendley grabbing a double. Paul Schiller, Havens and Cole all had singles.
