KFC comes back to tie Rene's

After a much-needed pitching change, Kentucky Fried Chicken mounted a comeback to tie Rene's Flowers 13-13 in Acton T-ball action Thursday night.

Robbie Rolfe and Sara Lajeunesse turned in fine performances for KFC, while Holly Wiscombe and Tara Ferguson complimented a great team effort for Rene's Flowers.

Under-12's tie Fergus

Acton's Leathertown Feed & Pet Supply under-12 All Star soccer side came close on June 17 when they played Fergus in Fergus.

Acton dominated the first half of play and Devon Fraser found the back of the Fergus net twice; Bobby McDougall scored the third goal for Acton. But Fergus came back fighting in the second half and, with only one minute of play left, managed to score a final goal of the night, tying the game at 3-3.

Andy's riding win streak

Andy's Haulage downed Georgetown Rent-All 6-4 in local men's softball action Sunday in Limehouse.

In a hotly-contested battle for second spot, Andy's scored three in the second and three in the sixth to win. Mike Manes went 4-1/3 innings on the mound to gain the win and Dick Spear picked him up to save the victory. Spear connected on a Terry Haines offering to blast a two-run homer in the game.

Andy's now trails the Acton Roadrunners by 1-1/2 games but have two in hand and are riding a seven-game winning streak.

On Friday it was Andy's defeating Ballinafad 13-9. Ballinafad actually jumped out to a 6-0 lead in this game, but Andy's Haulage came back with the relief pitching of Mike Manes. Reid McLeod, Steve Wilson and Dick Spear all homered for the winners.

Pitcher Jerry Marshall struck out nine and homered to lead the Acton Roadrunners to a 12-2 drubbing of Erin A's on Wednesday. Glen McKenzie scored three times in four plate appearances for Acton in the game.

The Warriors sent 11 men to the plate in the first inning on their way to a 16-8 doubling of Ballinafad last Tuesday. Brian Veenstra stroked a home run for the winners, while Ballinafad's Mark Hilts went 4-4 and scored three runs.

A four-run second frame proved to be the difference as Georgetown Rent-All got by Limehouse Limelighters 6-2 last Monday evening. Terry Haines picked up the win, while Paul Mastaler went 2-3 and scored twice in this one.

Villa shuts out Stingers for second win of year

Acton Villa Men's Soccer Club came up with a big shutout win in Inter-County soccer action Wednesday in Georgetown, besting the Georgetown Stingers 3-0.

With the game still scoreless at half-time, Acton returned to the field with determination and soon into the second half, Mark Rose put the local side ahead with a blast. Kevin Priestman and Colin Lewis put two more markers behind the Georgetown keeper before the end of the match.

Acton keeper Gary White earned the squad's first shut-out of the season with his solid play between the posts.

Villa's record now stands at 2-2-2, for a total of six points.

Next game for the side is tomorrow (Wednesday) when they host the Stingers at M.Z. Bennett.

Lions Club blasts Kilbride, edges Limehouse

Acton's Lions Club Atom Boys came up with a pair of important wins in local minor softball action last week.

Last Monday evening in Kilbride the Lions Club blasted the young and inexperienced host team by a count of 30-1. There were a number of offensive stars for Acton in this game, including David Albano, who connected for a grand slam, and Ryan Turpin, who blasted a pair of homers. David Schmuki, Peter Topolay, Chad Greenwood and Brydon Perry all contributed solo round-trippers. Justin Lockerbie belted a triple in the win, while Joey Thompson stroked a double. Singles came off the bats of Travis Stewart, Joey McGrath, Jamie

Dunn and Jason Wells.

The Lions Club had a rougher time of it against Limehouse on Thursday evening at Prospect Park — in fact Limehouse held the lead until the third inning, before the Acton side outlasted them 14-10.

Turpin connected for another grand slam in this game, with Topolay and Greenwood grabbing triples. Craig Lockwood and McGrath both chipped in with doubles, while singles went to Thompson and Perry.

Adam Spinney had a triple for Limehouse, while single base hits were registered by Greg Corman, Ryan Holman, Paul Payne and Roy Wigood.

T-batters draw 18-18 last Tues.

A&S Engraving and MacKenzie-Chapman fought to an 18-18 draw last Tuesday in minor T-ball action. Scoring twice for A&S were Kyle Harding, Kyla Duncanson, Luke Harris, Neil Armstrong, Daryl McKnight and Kody Killingbeck. Fine games were turned in for MacKenzie-Chapman by Sean Canary, Sara Berry and Reid Hendry.
