The Rams went up against Scarborough in their second contest and came out victorious by a 9-6 margin.

In their third match-up of the tourney, Acton pummeled Pelham by a final score of 11-3.

Stef McDonnell contributed with a lone goal and assist in the big win. Justin Cole, John Newby, Nicholas Crone, Colin Sheehan, Meghann Williams and Michael McDonald each registered helpers.

Acton's final game of the tourney was the "D" division final against Bolton-Caledon. Unfortunately the Rams could not come up with enough goals to win this game and had to bow out to Bolton 6-5 in the second overtime period.

The local Tykes came up with a big effort but penalties cost them dearly. The winning marker was actually scored with a pair of Acton players in the penalty box.

Mathew Wolfer and Andrew Pembleton each put two past the Bolton netminder and Tyler Prue added one more, but it was not enough. Assists were registered by Steve Atkinson, Michael McDonald and Adam Lindsay.
