

Electric loses out to Hornby, Cheltenham in final tourney

Halton Hills Electric Squirt Boys played valiantly in their season-ending softball tournament at Cheltenham on Aug. 14 and 15.

Up against second-place Hornby, Electric scored in the sixth when a Derek Lockerbie triple scored Mike Smith, who walked earlier in the inning. Chris Ashley's sacrifice fly allowed Lockerbie to score the local side's second run of the game. The final score was 17-2 for Hornby.

In the second game against Cheltenham, Electric took an early lead when Mike Pawlak scored and Jeff Miller's double brought Bryan Boyko home.

In the second inning, with bases loaded, Brian Boyko's single allowed Chris Ashley to score, while Jeff Miller's single and Matt Henderson's walk allowed two more Electric runners to cross home plate.

Cheltenham began to battle back in the third, taking a 7-5 lead. However, this lead was extinguished in the fifth when Electric's Derek Lockerbie doubled and Mike Pawlak and Mike Fowler scored to tie the game at 8-8.

Cheltenham showed why they were the league's leading team when they recaptured the lead 10-8. But Cheltenham's rally was cut short when Electric's Mike Fowler caught an infield fly and alertly stepped on second base for a double play, retiring the side.

Electric's Steve Forbes tripled in the sixth inning and scored when Bryan Boyko sacrificed but Cheltenham rallied in the last inning to win the game by 17-9.

This final game in Halton Hills Electric's season was actually closer than the final score suggests.
