

Opening of the new Library set for Sunday

The official Grand Opening of the new Eramosa Community Library is this Sunday, Sept. 20 from 2:30 to 5 pm. Formal ceremonies start at 2:30 with opening remarks and short speeches. The Eramosa Community Players follow with an excerpt from the Spirit of Shivaree, the "Quilting Bee" scene. The hand-made quilt used in the scene will then be presented to the library for a permanent display. The local songwriters group has written a song to be performed at the opening ceremony; it will be dedicated to the library. Presentations follow, and a time capsule will be shown. After the guest-book has been signed by the attending well-wishers it will be placed inside the capsule, which will then be sealed. Come join the festivities!

First day at McKenzie-Smith

BY MATT AND SHANNON

On Sept. 8, the kids at McKenzie-Smith returned for the 1992-93 school year. We were reunited with our friends and teachers.

The day went as follows: We were with our home rooms until 10 am then we got into homebase until 11:50.

Next we had a hotdog lunch supplied by the parent group. Boy, was it good!

In the afternoon, we had a mini Day I cycle; it was when we met our new teachers. At 3:10 we returned to homebase and at 3:20 — HOME TIME!

All in all, it was a good day.

Editors note: Congratulations to Matt and Shannon for being so swift with this report.
