

Fun In The Sun At The 79th Acton Fall Fair

IT WAS WORTH THE DRIVE! After a rainy Friday evening, sunshine brightened faces all around as the Acton Fall Fair parade kicked off a fantastic weekend party. Children of all ages enjoyed our fair's delights, from the midway to the tractor pulls to the cotton candy. Our camera crew could be seen in all corners of the fairgrounds as they captured the memories. Clockwise from top left: A young rider shows off her style during the English Hunter show early Sunday morning; Councillor Gerald Rennie and George Lee display a spirited rendition of the hula at the Acton seniors' booth for the Hawaii trip draw; Tanner staffer Eric Balkind consults with Madame Rita (a.k.a. Rita Landry of Speyside) on what the future might hold; Perennial parade favourite Bella-Maye Roszell waves to the appreciative crowd; Miss Acton Heidi Dempsey selects the winning ticket in the Rotary Beef Draw Sunday afternoon. Lucky winner was Mike Manes; Area students watch a blacksmith demonstrate his craft Friday afternoon on Education Day.
