Acton High runners do well in Heart Lake Invitational

Three cross country runners from Acton High all did well in Wednesday's Heart Lake Invitational in Brampton despite a steady rain that made conditions slippery and dangerous.

The race was a warm-up for the Ontario Finals, which will be held Saturday, Nov. 7 featuring the best runners in the province.

In the Midget Boys 5,000 metres, Acton's Michael Andrews had his best race ever, placing 65th of 263 finishers.

In the Senior Boys 8,000 metres, Acton's David Osborne placed 125th of 250 finishers. Coach Bruce Andrews said Osborne, and other runners, had trouble getting any traction in the mud.

Acton's Kyle Fitzsimmons, competing in his first year, had a good race, placing 136th of 250 finishers in the Senior Boys 8,000 metres.

All three runners are competing today (Wednesday) in the Halton Cross Country Championship at Milton's Kelso Conservation Area.
