Acton's Senior Girls basketball team dropped two straight games in the Redmen Invitational Basketball Tournament Saturday at Acton High.

Eight teams of Senior Girls from Halton, Peel and Guelph competed in the tournament that was won by Brampton's Cardinal Leger.

In its first game Acton was defeated by a powerful Milton team 43-19. At the end of the first quarter the score was 11-8 in Milton's favour. Milton proved to be faster and quicker getting the ball in the second quarter and upped the score to 22-10. Acton played poorly in the third quarter but picked up its game in the fourth.

In the Redmen's second game against Guelph Collegiate the score was much closer although Guelph did win 38-33. Acton's Kelly Ambrose, Deanna Louth and Jenny Goy all played well.
