

TIME OUT
Sports Cards & Collectables
178 Alma Street, Rockwood
856-9269

Sports

Hard Ball
BAR & BILLIARDS café

- Licensed LLBO
- Big 10 Ft. Screen
- Satellite Sports
- Fun for Everyone!

878-2205
HWY. 25, 1 MILE N. OF HWY. 401

Acton Redmen's Jenny Goy (21) prepares to sink a basket during Saturday's Redmen Junior Girls Invitational Basketball tournament as teammates Janice Coxie (33), Krista Keir and Shari Patenaude (4) ready for the rebound. Acton lost the consolation final to Georgetown 34-22. (Bruce Andrews photo)

Acton IGA Peewees undefeated in four

Acton's IGA Peevee II hockey squad shut out Arthur with a 3-0 win in Hub action in Arthur on Sunday.

Adam Petch lead the Acton scoring with two goals and Chris Brading had a single with two assists as did David Lajeunesse.

Sterling Ludee registered his second shut-out of the season and Brent McGuire and Jeff Gerrard both played well defensively for IGA.

The coaching staff is very happy with the hard work and discipline the team showed and especially the nine players from the house league system who are doing a good job.

IGA started the week with a 2-all tie against Arthur at home. David Lajeunesse scored twice with assists from George Kerr and Adam Petch. Brent McGuire and Josh Wilson were steady on defence.

Andy's still hot at 7 and 1

Andy's Restaurant Novice II squad could do no wrong in a 7-0 rout of Fergus in Hub League action on Monday in Fergus. The squad played excellent hockey with good corner work by the wingers.

Andy's Andrew Forbes of Rockwood had an exceptional game by registering four points, three goals and an assist. Other goals came off the sticks of David Preston, John Field, Jeff Payne and Jon Newby. Assists went to Chris Jowett, Adam Brouillard, Jeff Payne, Peter Glatt and John Field.

Once again, Chad Greenwood was outstanding in goal and the latest win put Chad at five shut-outs in just eight games.

Andy's also beat Elora 4-0 on Saturday in Acton. The Andy's squad played well defensively and forechecked and backchecked effectively.

Andy's Andrew Forbes played a strong game scoring two goals, one of them unassisted and the other with help from Jeff Payne and Simon Booker. Andy's Jon Newby and Adam Brouillard also found the net with the help of Nickolas Mastro and Shawn Prentice.

Al & Al's Darryl Wright hot in Tyke action

BANTAM

Acton Hockey Moms were edged 7-6 by Milton in Bantam play at Acton arena last Sunday. Acton's Shawn Galway led the scoring with a hat trick and single markers went to Adam Hachey, Jason McCallum and Brad Rynald. Assists went to David Cripps, David Nichol and McCallum.

PEEWEE

Milton's Shopper's Drug Mart defeated Acton's Craigwood Farms 5-3 in Peevee House League play on Saturday at Milton's Tonelli Sports Complex. Craigwood's Brad Williamson had a great game, scoring two goals. The third Craigwood marker came off the stick of Derek Nolan who also had an assist along with Curtis Archibald and Kevin Moreland. All three Craigwood lines and the defense played well in the fast-paced game. Kevin Cullingham came up big, with lots of saves of close shots.

In another Peevee game last week Acton's M & M Pro Sports were trounced 8-1 by Milton's Shoppy's. Acton's lone goal came from Brian McAnsh with help from Steve Protopapas. M & M's pick of the week was goal-tender Billy Royds, who played well but had some unfortunate goals put past him when the defensive support faltered. Jeremy Wallis also had a good game back after an injury.

ATOM

On Saturday Acton's Mr. Mugs played an excellent Atom game against Mike and Al's Transport but could do no better than a 5-all tie. Goal scorers for Mr. Mugs included Rob McMillian who had a hat trick and Mike Smith who found the net twice. Single assists went to Adam Bosch, Jason Runford and Matt Wilson with two each and Jamie Warren.

In the other Atom game Saturday, smart play and good passing helped Nellis Construction defeat Mike Luty Transport 6-3 at Acton arena. Nellis's Joey Zinke led the scoring with four markers and an assist. The other two Nellis markers came off the sticks of Marty Gordon and Alex Zinke. Assists went to Gordon, Marc Huyskens, Jeff Gordon and Ryan Bowen. Vishel Kassie also played well on defense.

All three of Luty Transport goals were scored by Joey Thompson with helpers from Marc Chiasson who had two, Chris Scully and Scott King.

NOVICE

The Acton Legion Maple Leafs defeated MacKenzie-Chapman 3-1 in Novice action Saturday at Acton arena. It was an intense, well-played game with strong goaltending by Max Schaefer of MacKenzie-Chapman and Chris Stanhope of the Legion.

Legion goals were scored by David McEnery, Adam Lindsay and Josh Bowen with assists from Alex Adwan, Jonathan Hicks and Lindsay. MacKenzie Chapman's marker was scored by Tyler Chapman with help from Mark Pawlak.

In the second Novice game Saturday, strong forechecking and solid defensive efforts resulted in MacMillan's Frozen Food's first regular season win, a 5-3 victory over Galvcast.

MacMillan's Shane Haslam had a hat trick and single markers came off the sticks of Thomas Mahon and Andrew Martin. Assists went to Michael Piatt who had two, Martin and Ken Christopher.

Galvcast goals were scored by Daniel Hastings, Trevor Hall and Eric Sousa with assists from Michael Vandenhoeck and Hastings.

TYKE

Acton's Best Transfer skated circles around McIntyre Fuels North Stars in a Tyke House League game Saturday at Acton arena by a 6-1 score. Neal Dawkins led the Best charge, scoring two goals and assisting with Blaine Murray on a Corey Grace marker. Other Best players to find the net were Dylan Jacobs, Jesse Hepburn and Taylor Seads. Murray and Jacobs also had assists.

Despite a great game by goalie Nick Newby, the North Stars could not win their first game of the season. Joey Brunelle had McIntyre's lone marker.

In the second Tyke game Darryl Wright scored five goals to lead Al & Al's Red Brand Meats to a 10-1 drubbing of Acton Terminal Warehouse. Al & Al's Tom Pembleton found the net twice and single markers were scored by Kyle Strong, Michael Wood and Tyler Holmes. Assists went to Pembleton and Blake Martin. Mike Borg scored A.T.W.'s lone goal.

In the third Tyke game last week A & S Engraving and Trophys's Matt Bronizewski showed no pity on the Goy Transport net, scoring five times to lead A & S to a convincing 11-4 win. Chad Henry had a hat trick for A & S and single markers were scored by Ian Boileau, Harry Schaffer and Daniel Payne. Henry also had two assists and Norman Corpe had one. Three of Goy's goals came off the stick of Patrick Sherren and Kyle Winters scored the fourth with assists from Gregory Black, Shane Monagan, Matt Gardiner and Johnny Blair.

Junior Redmen host tourney

BY TANYA MARISSEN

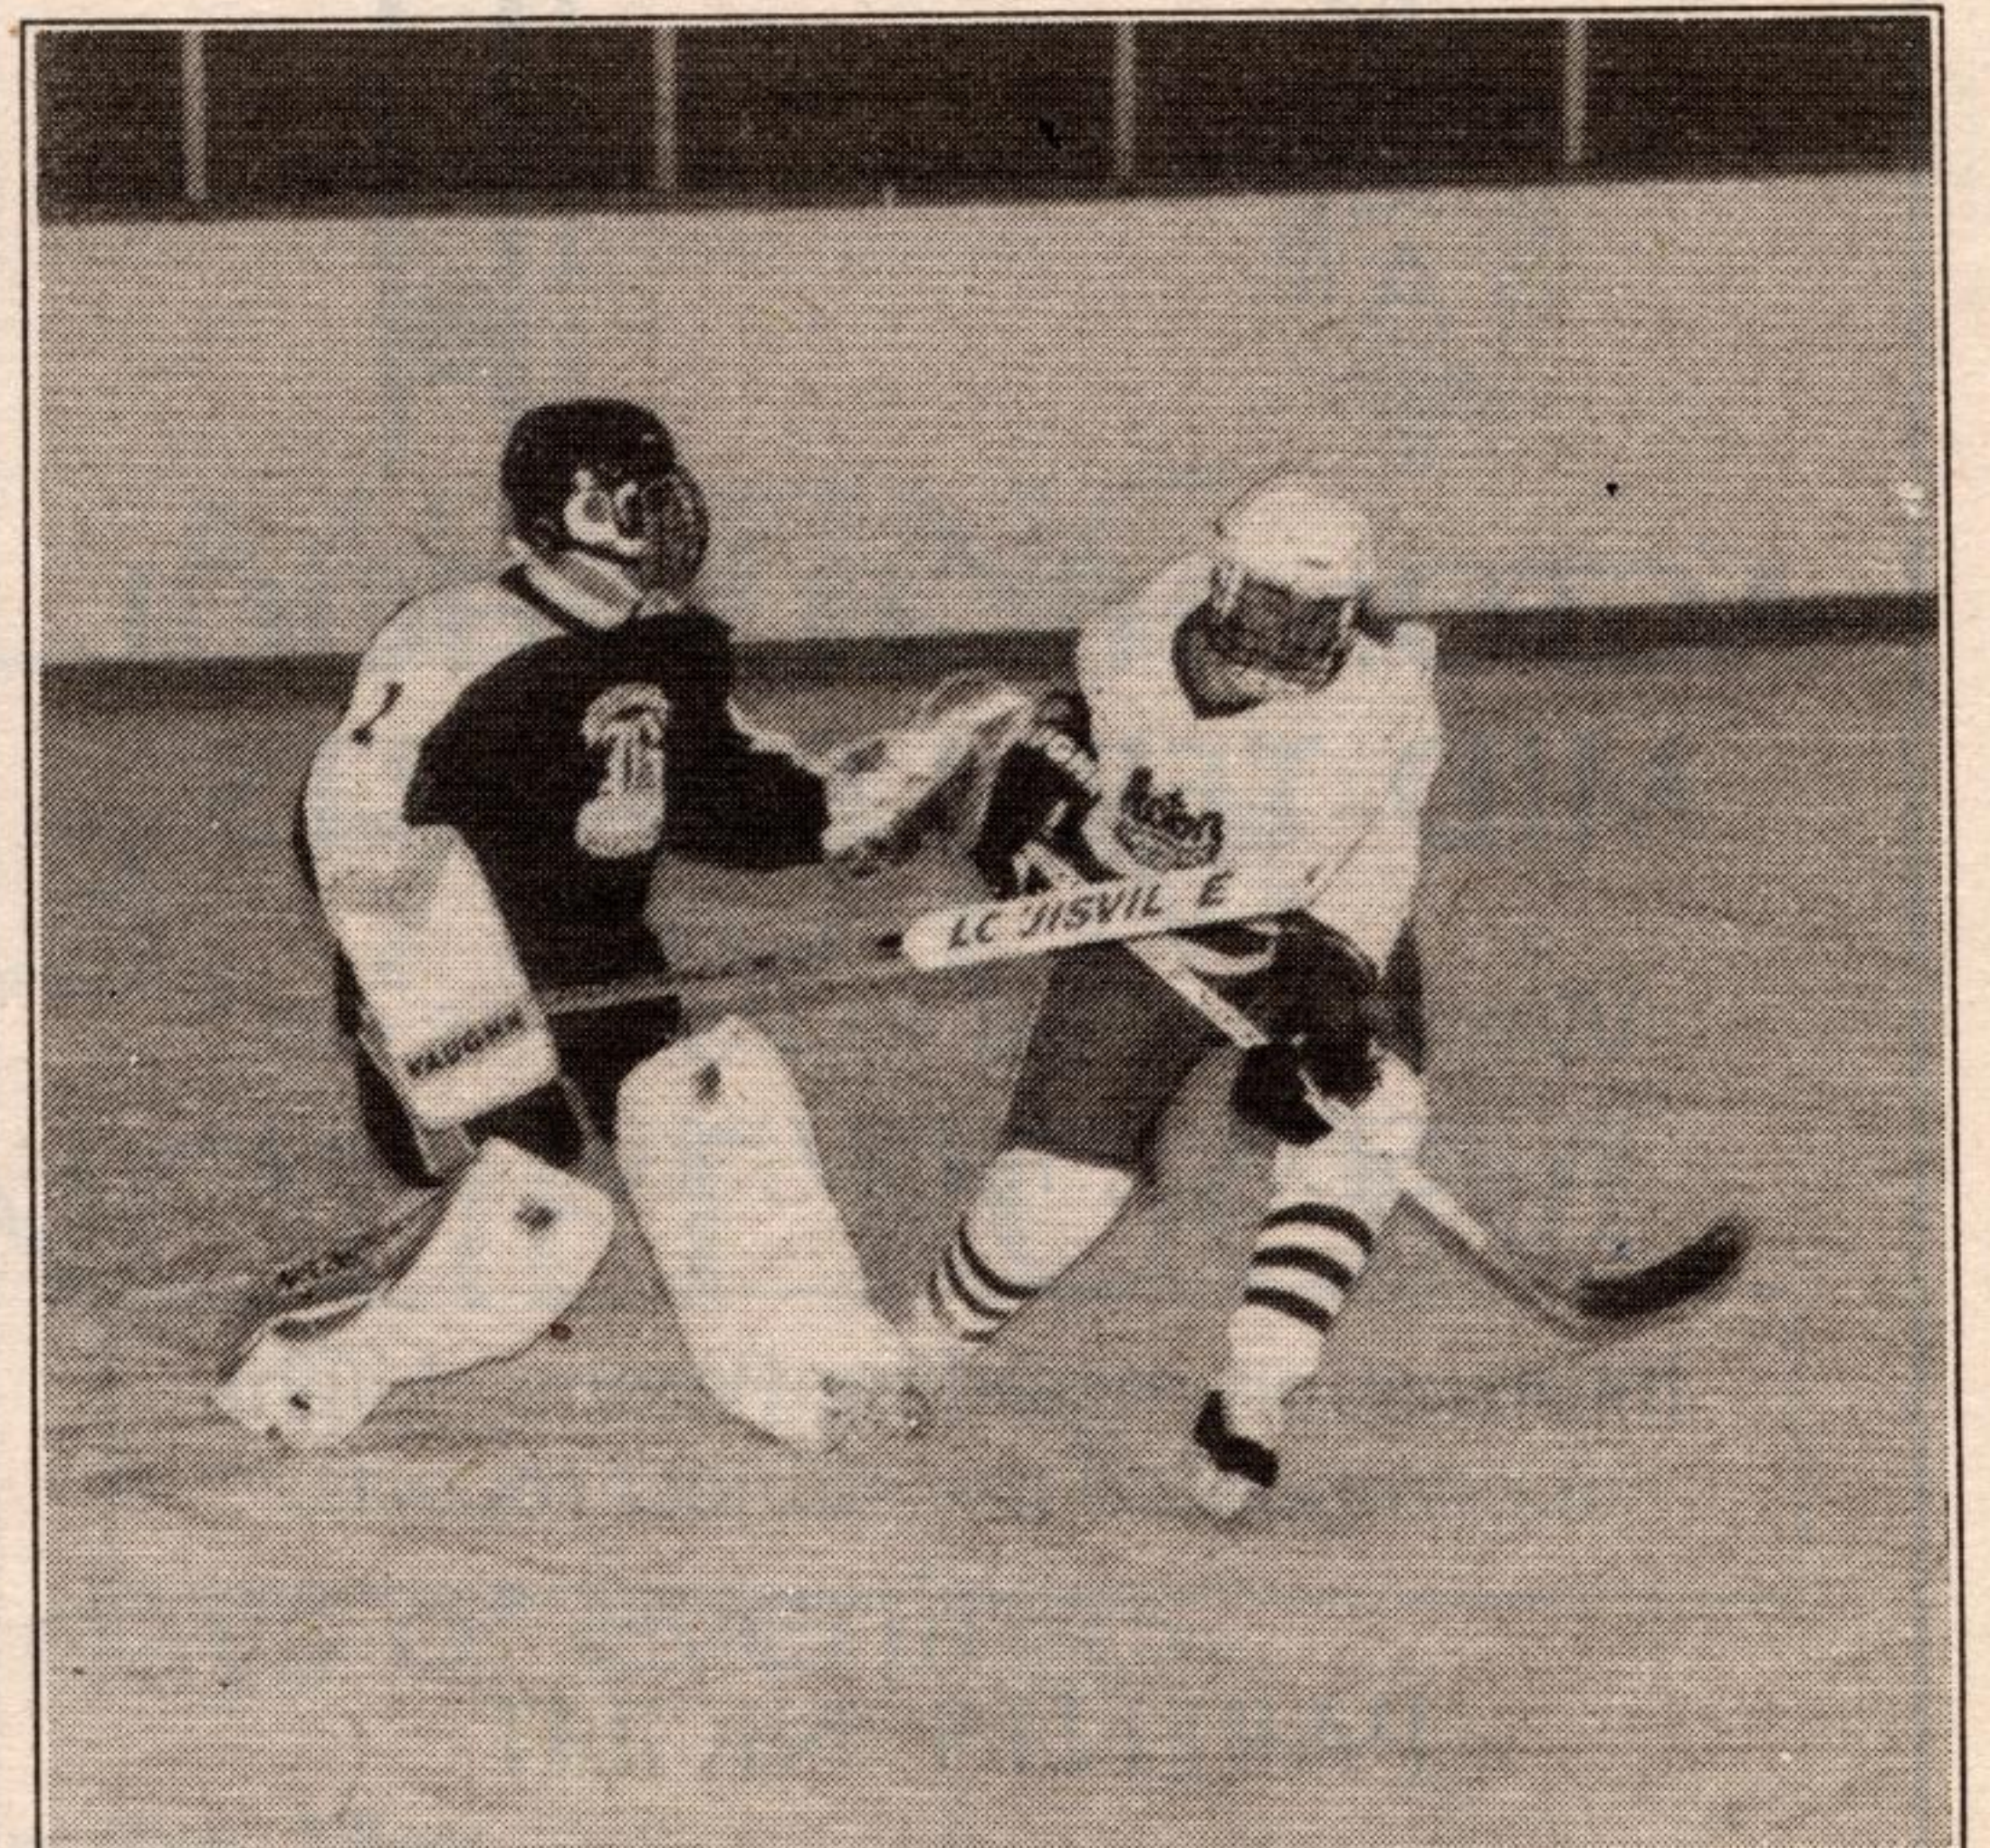

The Acton High Junior Girls' basketball team just missed second place in Saturday's Redmen Invitational tournament at Acton High that featured eight teams from Halton, Wellington and Peel.

Acton lost the first game to Queen Elizabeth Park 34-20. Acton played well but was not prepared for Q.E. Park's tough offense.

Acton won game two, a 32-21 match against Turner Fenton and showed promise as tournament runner-up.

Acton met Georgetown in the battle for second place and although Acton played well, Georgetown won 34-22.

Acton's Jenny Goy played a strong game scoring 27 points. Shari Patenaude scored 15 points and Krista Keir had 6.

A LITTLE LATE! Acton Travel's Roy Stuckless is challenged by Brampton's goalie in a recent Midget Hub exhibition game that Acton won 11-5. (Mike Albano photo)