Acton Rotary 10 and 6 in Juvenile hockey

Paul Westaway had a hat trick to lead the visiting Acton Rotary Club squad to a 7-4 win over Brampton in Tri-County hockey action last Tuesday evening.

Kelly Jupp found the net first for the local side with help from Paul McLeod and Rob Richmond. Jeff Koproski also scored in the first period, unassisted, and Paul Westaway scored his first of the game with help from Jamie Galway and Jamie Cook.

Jupp bulged the twine once again in the second period with help from Mike Gair and Wayne Bousfield and Westaway scored his second and third goals with help from Dave DeForest, Koprowski and Gair.

MARK SPITZ MOVE OVER! Nine month old water baby Luke VanDinther and mother Mary participated at the 19th Annual Parks and Recreation Water Show held at Acton Lion's Indoor Pool last Friday. Santa Claus also made an appearance and admission was waived with a food donation for the needy. (Mike Albano photo)
