

Support Community businesses advertising in these pages!

Sports

Hard Ball
BAR & BILLIARDS
café

- Licensed LLBO
- Big 10 Ft. Screen
- Satellite Sports
- Fun for Everyone!

878-2205
HWY. 25, 1 MILE N. OF HWY. 401

The Nellis Construction Novice II hockey squad came up just short of a win last Wednesday at Acton arena against the visiting Arthur team, 4-3. Above, Acton players, left to right are, Ian Wallis, Chris Near (down) and David Brooks. (Jim Cooney photo)

Andy's 14-3 in Novice rep hockey play

Andy's Restaurant split a pair of weekend hockey games in Novice II rep action.

Andy's dropped the first game 3-1 to visiting Guelph.

Jeff Payne scored Andy's lone marker with help from David Preston and Adam Brouillard.

In the other game Andy's travelled to Arthur and came home with a 4-3 win.

At one point Arthur tied the game but Andy's battled back for the win in the third period.

Andrew Forbes led the Andy's scoring with two goals, while singles were scored by John Field and Payne.

Assists went to Brian Field, Peter Glatt, David Lyons, Shawn Prentice, Jon Newby and Preston.

Andy's next game is Saturday, Jan. 2 in a tournament in New Hamburg.

Nellis has a tie and a loss

The Nellis Construction Acton Sabres Novice I squad managed a 2-all tie with London in rep hockey action Saturday at Acton arena.

A disallowed goal by London in the third period helped the Sabres keep the tie in a very aggressive, intense game.

In the first period the Sabres took a 1-0 lead with a goal by Ryan Weatherall, assisted by Ian Wallis.

London scored in the second period to tie the game and in the third period the Sabres' Andrew Pembleton found the net with help from Mike Dube and Weatherall.

London then came back to tie it again. A strong defensive game was played by David Brooks.

Last Wednesday the Sabres dropped a 4-3 decision to the visiting first place Arthur team.

Arthur found the net early in the game with two goals in the first period. Acton forward Mitchell Moore got one back late in the first period with help from Steven Barends and Jason McGuire. Tight checking in the second period left both teams scoreless.

Arthur scored early in the third making it 3-1 but the Sabres fought back to tie the score with goals by Ben Williams and Barends. Moore assisted on both along with Weatherall and McGuire.

Arthur then broke the tie with a goal at just under two minutes remaining.

Bronizewski tallies seven points in 12-0 win

PEEWEE

Despite a 7-4 loss, Acton's M & M Pro Sports had their best game of the year on Saturday in Pee wee hockey action against John's Mobile at Milton's Tonelli Sports Centre.

The game was close until late in the third period when the M & M squad faltered.

Steve Protopapas had a two-goal game and singles were scored by Shane Sero and Brian McAnsh.

Assists went to Brett Timakus, Peter Drexler, Chad Edwards and Protopapas.

In other Pee wee action on Saturday, Craigwood Farms easily defeated Milton's McCuaig at Acton arena, 4-1.

Jeff Hunter and Mike Moulard scored their first goals of the season and Brad Williamson and Derek Nolan also had singles.

Assists went to Blair Williamson who had three, Brad Williamson, Moulard and Nolan.

Kevin Cullingham had one of his best games in goal for Craigwood.

ATOM

Mike Smith led Mr. Mugs to a 3-1 win over Luty Transport in Atom play on Saturday at Acton arena.

Smith scored twice and James Mashinter found the net once with help from Rob McMillan, Jamie Warren and Adam Bosch. Joey Thompson scored Luty's lone goal, unassisted.

In other Atom play, Nellis Construction doubled Mike and Al's Transport, 6-3.

Brothers Alex and Joey Zinke each found the net once and each had an assist. Marty Gordon and Ryan Bowen also had singles.

Mike Hastings and Robbie Laird were responsible for the Mike & Al goals with help from David White, John Harris and Dan Stanhope.

NOVICE

Chris Stanhope led the Acton Legion Maple Leafs to a convincing 6-1 victory over MacKenzie-Chapman in Novice play on Saturday at the Acton arena.

Stanhope scored a hat trick and singles came off the sticks of Adam Lindsay, Jonathan Hicks and Jason Bonus.

Assists went to Joey McGrath, David McEnery, Bonus, Stanhope and Lindsay. Josh Bowen played a solid game in net for the Legion.

Shane Kilgour scored MacKenzie's lone marker with help from Kurtis Bosch and Jason Chapman.

In other Novice play on Saturday Galvcast managed an 8-6 win over MacMillan's Frozen Foods.

The Galvcast squad jumped to a commanding lead on the offensive strength of Mike Rowsell, who had five goals and one assist.

Single markers were scored by Robert Periera, Derek Scott and Michael Vandenoer.

Assists went to Scott, Eric Sousa, Tommy Dredge, Paul Payne, Cory Killingbeck and Adam Mills.

Michael Grierson led the MacMillan's scoring with a hat trick.

Steven Atkinson found the net twice and Shane Haslam had a single.

Assists went to Thomas Mahon with two, Andrew Martin and Haslam.

TYKE

It was no contest as A & S Engraving and Trophies toyed with Goy Cartage in a lop-sided Tyke game Saturday at Acton arena.

Matt Bronizewski found the net five times and had two assists for A & S as they defeated Goy 12-0.

Chad Henry scored four goals, Matt Locke had two and Ian Boileau a single in the game. Assists went to Locke with four, Boileau with two and Shawn Walker with one.

In other Tyke action Al & Al's Red Brand Meats defeated Acton Terminal Warehouse 6-4 at Acton arena on Saturday.

Both Tim Pembleton and Blake Martin found the net twice and singles came off the sticks of Darryl Wright and Nathan Bowen.

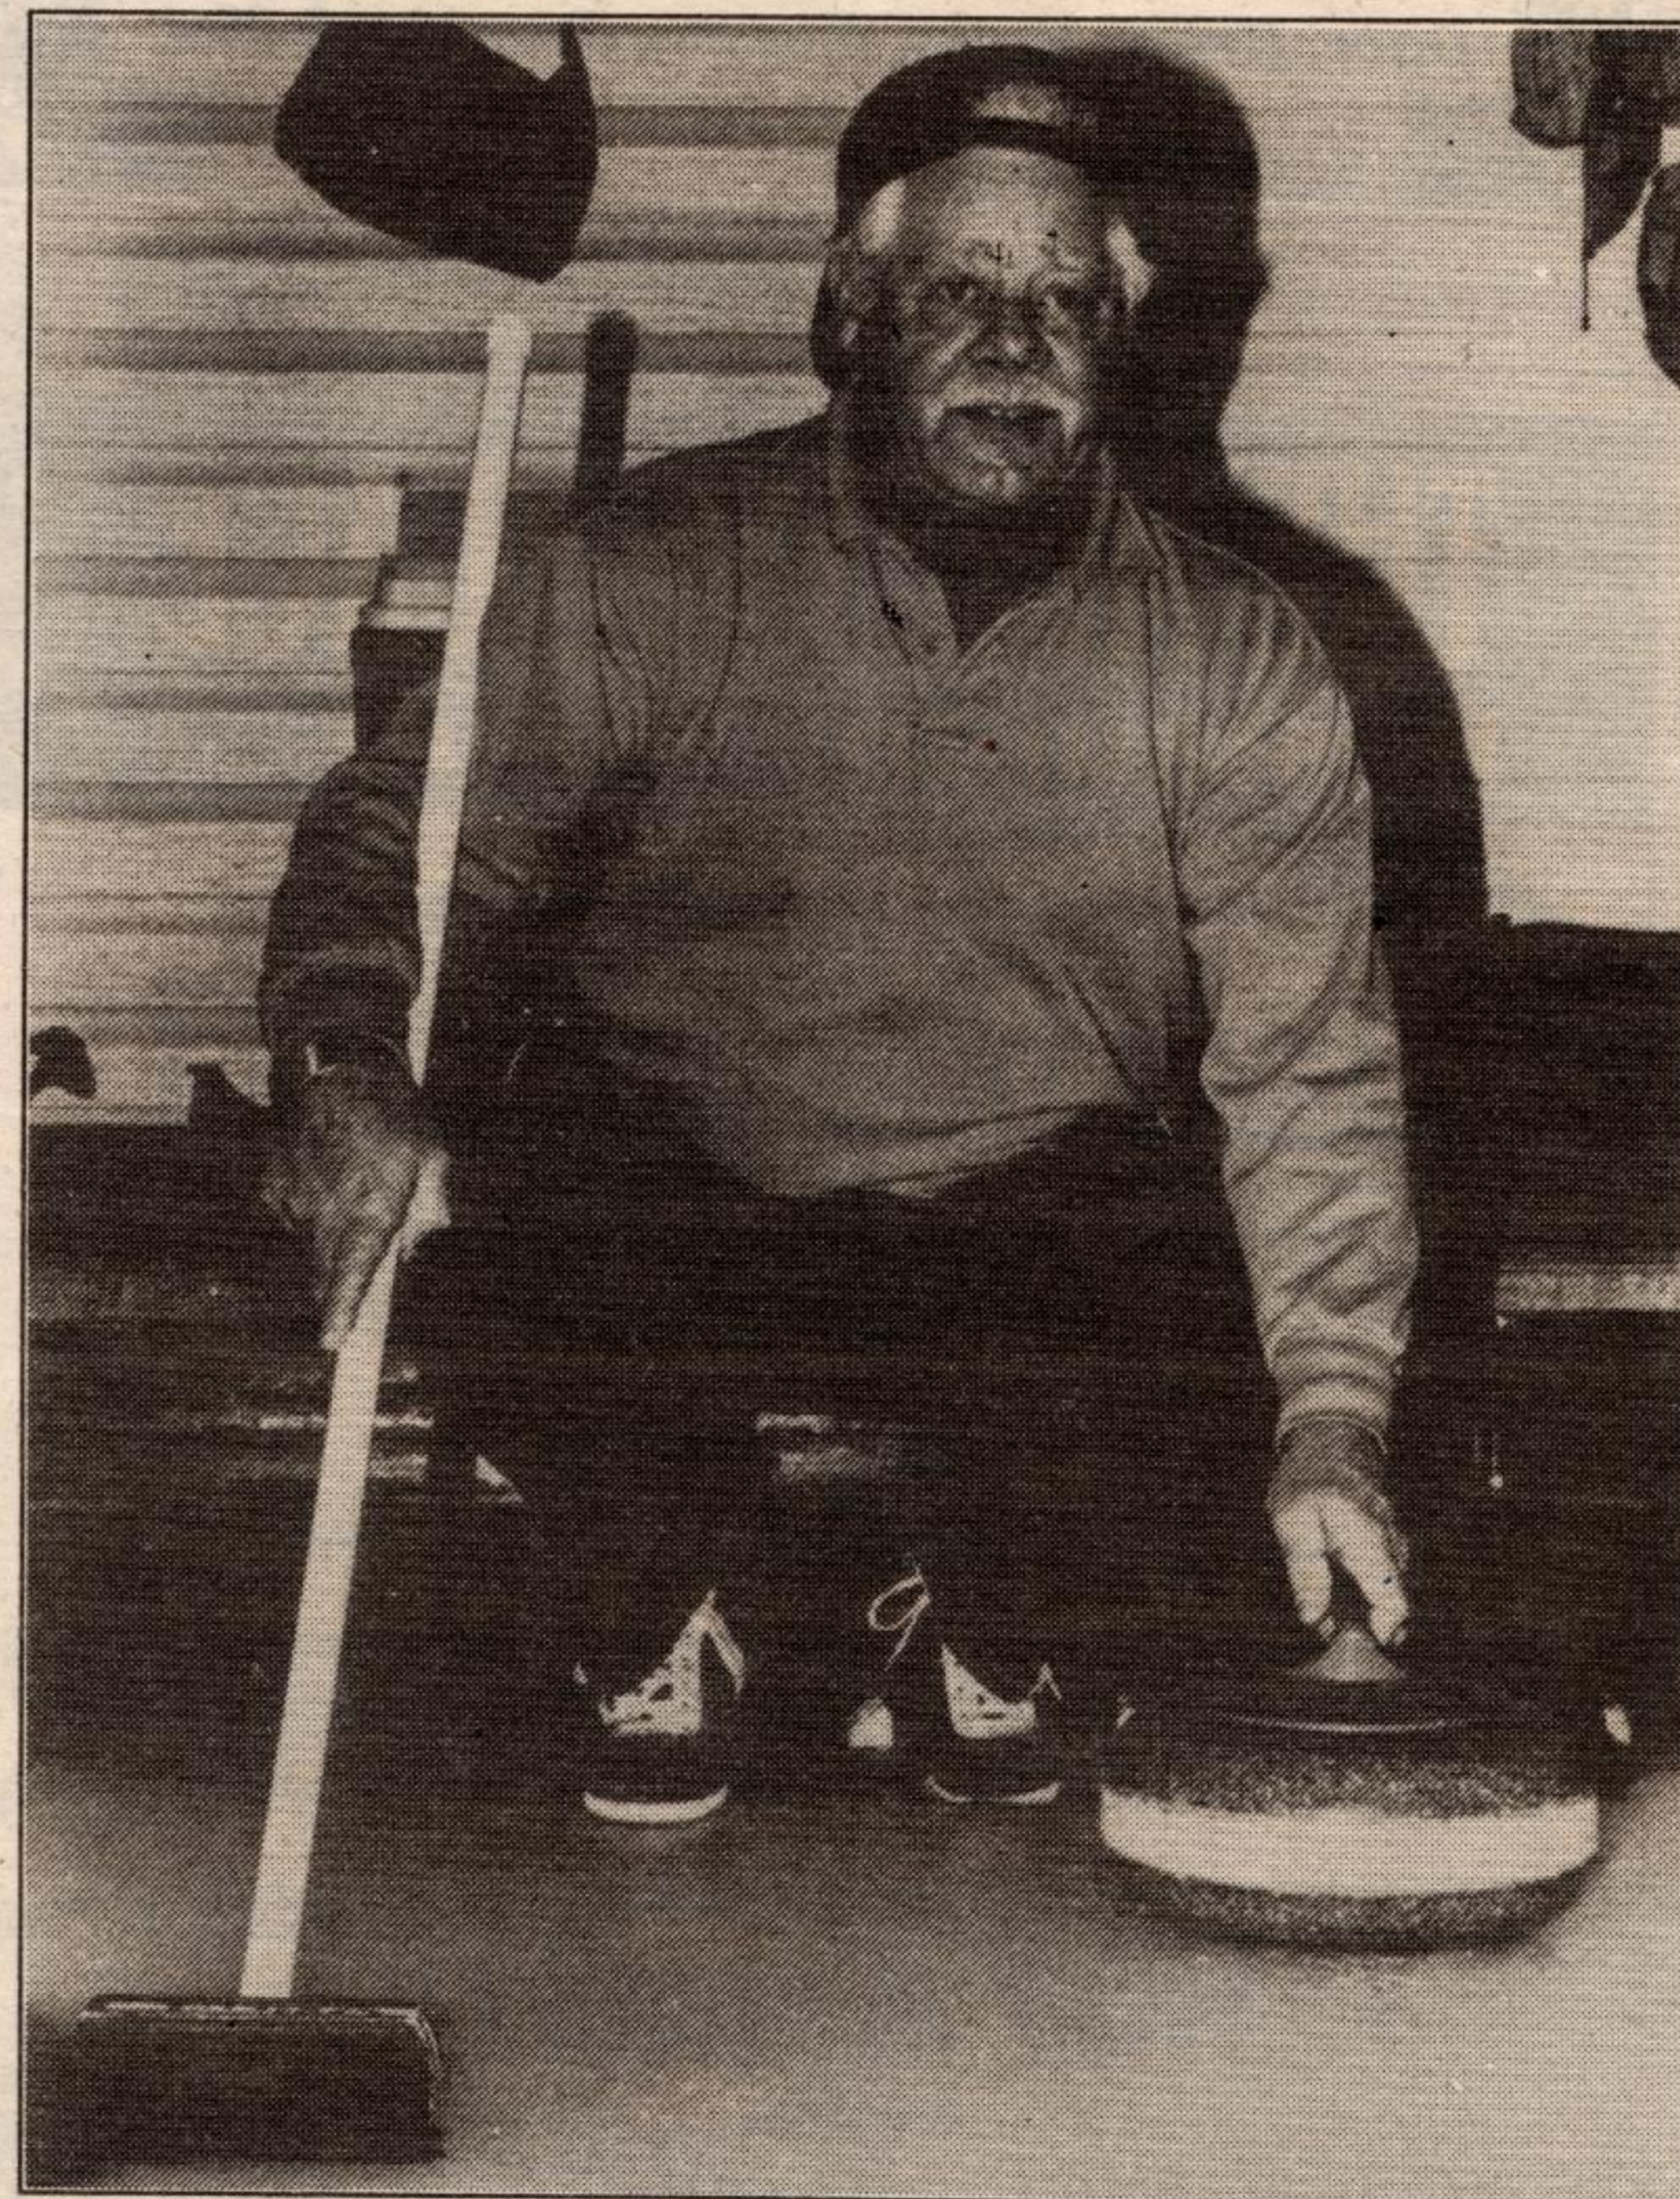

Assists went to Bowen, Tyler Holmes, Mike Wood and Wright.

Mark Boycott led the A.T.W. scoring with a hat trick and Darren Trull had a single.

Assists went to Joe Dunbar who had two, Mike Borg and Colin Sheehan.

In the third Tyke game, great goaltending by Best Transfer's Taylor Seeds and McIntyre Fuels' Sean Canary led to a 2-all tie on Saturday.

Dylan Jacobs and Neal Dawkins netted Best's goals with help from Matthew Dayman and McIntyre markers were scored by Daniel Payne and Andrew Robitaile with help from Harry Schaeffer, Joey Brunelle and Tyler Veness.

READY, SET...! Gren Schrader sets up his shot at the Friday Night Mixed League curling at the Acton Curling club. (Mike Albano photo)