

Solid goaltending, timely goals lift Atoms

Unlike the Peewees, the Acton Proplastex Atom II team started the OMHA playoffs on a winning note Sunday, beating Fergus to the tune of 3-1 at home.

Early in the first period, Joey Field converted a pretty three-way passing play by Derrick Inscoc and Matt Hebden for a quick 1-0 lead against the larger Fergus team.

At the mid-point of the period, another great passing play set up by Hebden and Marc Forbes allowed Inscoc to up the lead to 2-0.

The scored remained 2-0 until the last minute of period two when Fergus narrowed the margin to 2-1.

In the third, Reuben Rivers took the wind out of the Fergus sails as he shot the puck past the Fergus goalie. Brydon Perry and Joey Field helped put the game out of reach.

Acton netminder Rory Dick played a big role in helping his team start the playoffs with a win by playing steady throughout the contest.

Game 2 was played Monday night in Fergus with Game 3 here last night.

George Lee is top Golden Ager
