

Acton High track members impress at York meet

BY DOUG HARRISON

The Acton High track team was well-represented in the East York Invitational Indoor track and field meet at York University last Friday, racking up some impressive numbers to boot against the 42 other schools involved.

Noteworthy achievements by the local team were recorded in the following categories: Junior Girls' 60-metre, open Girls' long jump, open Boys' shot put, open Girls' shot put, Junior Boys' 800-metre and Midget Boys' 800-metre.

Finishing fourth in her heat, Shelby Daponte performed well for the locals in the 60m. As well, she added a sixth place finish in the open Girls' long jump with a distance of 3.92m.

Acton High's David Andrews grabbed fifth in the open Boys' shot put with a 7.63m put. Winner David Dolliver had a put measuring 10.74m.

Julie Robinson also found herself in fifth spot, measuring a put of 7.13m in the open Girls' competition.

Paul Schick burst out of the blocks in his Junior Boys' 800m heat and won bragging rights with a sizzling finish in a time of two minutes, 16.8 seconds.

Acton also excelled in the Midget Boys' 800m with Adam Daponte and Michael Andrews leading the way.

Daponte finished in second after crossing the tape in 2:25, while Andrews was right on his heels in a time of 2:28.2.

Stanhope's four points push Leafs to win

BANTAM

In a mother of a Bantam house league battle on Feb. 14, the Acton Hockey Mom's dropped a 6-1 decision to their namesakes from Milton at the Acton arena.

Shawn Galway on an unassisted effort was the lone Acton scorer.

PEEWEE

Shane Sero should come to the rink feeling sick more often.

Feeling under the weather, the M & M Pro Sports forward scored three goals en route to his team's 4-3 clipping of Milton's Shopsy's in Pee wee action.

Mark Ridley had the other goal. Sero scored the game-winner and let the stellar work of the defensive corps take over.

M & M assists were registered by Peter Drexler, Joel Grossman, Chad Edwards, David Brown and Billy Royds.

M & M Pro Sports' coaching staff of Laurie Dickinson and Paul Chadwick gave the nod for player of the game to Sero for his hard work at both ends of the ice.

In the other Pee wee contest, Craigwood Farms battled Shopper's Drug Mart to a 4-4 draw in Milton on Saturday.

ATOM

In the only Atom contest, Mike & Al's Transport outlasted Nellis Construction 8-4 at the Community Centre on Saturday.

Mike Hastings and Rob Laird led the way with both players recording a point on seven of the eight goals scored.

Laird, who opened the Mike & Al's scoring, potted a pair and assisted on five others. Hastings notched the hat-trick to go with four helpers.

Jonathan Harris, David White and Dan Stanhope contributed single markers each.

Kris Adema with two, Brad McLeod, Harris and White had assists for Mike & Al's, which was blessed by solid work between the pipes by Craig Foster, who made some outstanding saves to enable his team to pull ahead.

NOVICE

In an intense, fast-paced playoff game, the Acton Legion Maple Leafs scored a 7-3 win over the Galvcast Red Wings on Saturday.

Adam Lindsay, David McEnery and Chris Stanhope sparked the Leaf attack with two goals apiece. Jason Bonus added a single.

Assists went to Stanhope, Lindsay, Bonus, Jonathan Hicks, Michael Lee and Joey McGrath.

Michael Rowsell, with three, scored the Red Wings goals.

Kory Killingbeck notched the only assist for the home side.

Meanwhile, McIntyre Fuels' dynamo Joey Brunelle took a back seat for a week and watched his teammate Andrew Robitaille pot four of his team's six goals in edging Al & Al's Red Brand Meats 6-5 on Saturday in Acton.

And no, Brunelle wasn't held scoreless. He took credit for the other two goals.

The deadly duo also helped set up two goals each.

Tyler Veness and Nick Newby also had helpers.

McIntyre Fuels' goaltender Sean Canary had a strong performance and was able to lend a hand in preserving the victory.

Tyler Holmes and Darryl Wright each netted a pair of goals for Al & Al's. Tim Pembleton had the other.

Wright and Holmes with two apiece and Darryl Holmes were awarded assists.

In other games, MacMillan's had a strong showing on Saturday, but MacKenzie-Chapman backstop Max Schaeffer was equal to the task helping his team earn a 4-4 tie.

Kurtis Bosch scored his team's first three goals before letting Mark Pawlak on the scoresheet with the other.

Justin Lockerbie and Gram Rhynold with two and Bosch counted the assists.

Finding the net for the MacMillan's club were Thomas Mahon with a pair, and singles to Steven Atkinson and Shane Haslam.

Assists were given to Michael Grierson with three, Andrew Martin with two and Sean Kirk.

Mr. Mugs has Luty Transport's number after taking their second playoff game against them, a 5-1 verdict on Saturday at the Community Centre.

Mr. Mugs' Rob McMillan atoned for last week's flirtation with a hat-trick, bagging three this time around, while Mike Smith scored two goals playing defence.

Adam Bosch with two, Jamie Warren, James Mashinter, Jason Rumford and Phillip Goy chalked up assists.

Joey Thompson, with help from Ben Renolds, answered for visiting Luty Transport.

TYKE

Matthew Bronizewski fired six goals at the arena to power A & S Engraving past Acton Terminal Warehouse 7-2 in Tyke action.

Matthew Locke scored the other. Matthew Chapman and Troy Ethier chipped in with helpers.

Mark Boycott and Mike Borg scored in a losing cause for A.T.W.

Joe Dunbar grabbed an assist on the Boycott tally.

In the other Tyke matchup Saturday, Goy Transport's Stephen Boychuk and his Best Transfer counterpart Michael Geron, locked horns in a goaltender's duel with both frustrating opposing forwards equally in a 1-1 tie.

Matt Gardener, who took an Adrian Chabassol feed, scored for Goy.

Blaine Murry scored for Best. Shawn Ritchards helped set up the lone Best Transfer assist.
