Coming Events
Saturday, March 27: Again, I would like to focus on the special event of Branch 197's 62nd Charter and Anniversary Party. This may be your last chance to attend one of the biggest events of the entertainment schedule at Branch 197. If it is not well-attended it will be discontinued. Tickets are only $15 per person, which includes a fabulous dinner, bar drinks and some great entertainment. Tickets are on sale at the bar. Members and guests only.

Saturday, March 13: Another big evening! The Initiation Night and St. Patrick's Day Dance with "NO CHARGE" admission. Irish Stew will be the menu.
 See you at the Branch!

TAKING AIM: Dick Clarke prepares for a shot during Men's dart play last Tuesday evening at the Legion. The Men's League runs every Tuesday, while the ladies play Wednesday evenings. (Doug Harrison photo)

GREAT MOVIES! Entertainment Tonight GREAT PRICES!

A League of Their Own
 By Susan Lindsay
 An amusing portrayal of the All-American Girls Professional Baseball League, from its beginning during the Second World War, to its induction into the Baseball Hall of Fame. It is a movie of rivalries; team rivalry, player rivalry and sibling rivalry. It is also a movie of triumph for individuals, teams and ultimately the Girls Baseball League itself. The League begins as a mockery, however it soon gains popularity, finishing with a World Series of Girls Baseball! A League of Their Own is a must see light-hearted comedy. Rated PG.
