

Zinke scores three in under two minutes, Nellis wins 5-4

PEEWEE

In Pee wee action, Craigwood Farms drew first blood on Saturday as Blair Williamson, who figured in on all his team's scoring, potted the first goal in a 3-2 edging of M & M Pro Sports.

Brad Williamson made it 2-0.

Shane Sero got Pro Sports on the board in the third period to get his team back in the game.

Later, Blair Williamson put Craigwood Farms up 3-1 midway through the last period, completing a pass from Curtis Archibald.

M & M Pro Sports answered with a late goal by Greg McMillan.

McMillan and defensive mate Jim Dickinson played well, keeping the score at 3-2. Dickinson's efforts landed him M & M Pro Sports' player of the game.

In other Novice action on Saturday, Mark Pawlak had three goals and Kurtis Bosch the other in a 4-1 win for MacKenzie-Chapman over the Legion Maple Leafs.

Michael Varanelli with two and Bosch helped set up goals for MacKenzie-Chapman, which was blessed by terrific netminding from Max Schaefer.

TYKE

Joey Brunelle had a three-point game for his McIntyre Fuels North Stars as they tied Goy Transport 3-3.

Brunelle scored two goals for the North Stars, while Daniel Payne potted the other.

Nick Newby collected two assists for the Stars, while Keith Gilmour had a single.

Tyler Vaness had a great game and goalie Sean Canary made a game saving stop.

Chad Artem, Stephen Boychuk and Shawn Gobin replied for Goy.

Artem, Kyle Winters, Shayne Monaghan and Adrian Chabassol chalked up assists.

Goy coach George Artem said goalie Matt Gardener was sound and Johnny Blair was awarded as defensive player of the game.

Al and Al's Red Brand Meats' Darryl Wright lifted his club to a 7-4 win over A & S Engraving by recording all seven goals, in other Tyke action.

Candice Anderson with a pair and singles to Mike Wood, Patrick Glatt and Chad Zorchita took care of the assists in the game played at the Community Centre.

Matt Bronizewski with two, Harry Schaffer and Matt Chapman answered for A & S Engraving.

Robbie Rolfe, Brent Chapman, Troy Ethier and Matt Locke had assists.

Mike Borg scored a goal but it wasn't nearly enough as Acton Terminal Warehouse dropped a 7-1 decision to Best Transfer.

Michael Gerrow, Dylan Jacobs and Neal Dawkins each had two goals, while Jessie Hepburn also found the net.

Jacobs and Cory Grace with three, Blaine Murray, two, and Gerrow, Adam Burgess and Hepburn supplied the assists for Best Transfer.

Without the sparkling effort from A.T.W. keeper Brendan Sheppard, the Best Transfer output would have hit double digits.

ATOM

Powered by Joey Zinke's scoring talents, Nellis Construction eked out a 5-4 win over Mr. Mugs after the Atom dynamo scored three unanswered goals with one minute, 37 seconds left in the contest.

Down 4-2, Zinke drove to the net and scored his third of five goals to close the gap to 4-3.

Zinke's breakaway drew a penalty shot which he potted to tie the game with 33 seconds left.

With four ticks remaining, Alex Zinke made the perfect pass on a 2-on-1 break to brother Joey and he made no mistake to give Nellis the victory in the exciting matchup.

In the other Atom game at the Community Centre, Mike Luty Transport and Mike and Al's Transport fought to a 3-3 tie.

Nathan French, Joey Thompson and Ryan Schmidt scored goals for Luty Transport.

Schmidt and French assisted.

Mike Hastings with a goal and assist led Mike and Al's scoring. David White and Rob Laird also scored.

Jonathan Harris with two and Laird had the other helpers.

Player of the game went to goalie Chris Scully, who stopped 36 shots for Luty Transport.

NOVICE

A little help from his teammates might have made Galvcast's Mike Rowsell happier since his four goals were still a little shy of matching the output of six by five different MacMillan's players in a 6-4 loss.

Scoring for MacMillan's were Steven Atkinson with two, Thomas Mahon, Andrew Martin, Sean Kirk and Shane Haslam.

Mahon and Adam Canary with two apiece, Martin, Haslam, Michael Grierson and Paul Schiller registered assists for MacMillan's.

Eric Sousa, on Rowsell's third goal, had the lone Galvcast helper.

Good goaltending at both ends kept the game close.

A few points about the new Sweetheart Rules

Rocket Richard, the Babe Ruth of hockey, or as the Rocket said when I called him that, "You mean Babe Ruth was the Rocket Richard of Baseball," must shake his head in sorrow when he sees his holy grail of hockey (by that I mean 50 goals in one season) being torn asunder (into pieces) by every Tom, Dick and Harry.

As I write this, 14 players are on target to net 50 goals, and listen to this one: last year only nine guys got 100 points and this year it looks like 24 players will score 100-plus points.

The "Kinder, Gentler Rules" are working and no-check hockey is here to stay. The players are calling this the European Rules and look at the evidence. Is it purely coincidence that three Europeans — Mogilny, Bure and Selanne — are blossoming the same year under these "Sweetheart Rules?" I think not!

Changing the rules for more points only cheapens the achievement of getting them. It's like making home runs cheap by bringing in the fences.

All-Star game needs some changes

We just have to do something about the NHL showpiece, the All-Star Game. It's a shame people see this embarrassment on NBC, because the people the NHL is trying to sell on hockey have to be turned-off by that display. I realize that hockey and football are "hard to sell" when it come to all-star games because they are hitting sports, but let's find new ways to get the players a little serious about the contest.

George Gross, sports editor of the Toronto Sun, suggests a format with European players competing against North American players. That sounds good, but I'd like to see the Stanley Cup champs against a "real" all-star team comprised of guys who aren't just there because every team has to send a player.
