Mohawk drivers sweep

BY KATHY WADE-VLAAR
Mohawk Raceway

Ontario Jockey Club drivers took win, place and show honours in the 1993 Drivers' Charity Challenge held at Mohawk Raceway on Sunday night as eight of North America's best harness drivers competed for children's charities.

Driver Paul MacDonell managed to capture the victory as he finished second in the final race to earn seven points to add to his previous 26. MacDonell drove for the Muscular Dystrophy Association of Canada, a cheque for $5,000 was donated to that organization on his behalf.

Steve Condren's second-place finish saw $3,000 go to the Jennifer Ashleigh Foundation, and the Easter Seals received $2,000 because of Doug Brown's third-place effort.
